THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE
IS PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING AND EVENING
(Sundays excepted)
BY HENRY FOWLER & CO.
At the Tribune Buildings, No. 53 Clark street, next door South of the Post Office.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION

THE CHICAGO TRI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published Tuesday's, Thursday's and Saturday's, is issued on the same sheet with the large Morning Daily and contains all the reading matter of two days. This is an excellent edition for residents in the country. It will be furnished to mail subscribers at the low price of $3.00 a year in advance.

The CHICAGO WEEKLY TRIBUNE contains all the valuable reading matter of the Daily, including the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the Mails, Market Reports, Literary Reviews, one choice Story each week, and excellent Home articles, and furnishes more reading than the large sheet of the New York Weekly Tribune. It is published every Friday at the low price of $2.00 a year in advance.

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE.

The Publishers of THE TRIBUNE deem it not inappropriate at this time to make a brief statement of their purpose and plan.

1. The first essential of a good Daily consists in its being a Newspaper. News—accurate, reliable, varied and fresh, is its life-blood. The furnishing its Readers with the latest and best information of each of the manifold changes, incidents and developments occurring throughout the world, as are of special interest to the people of Chicago and the West, will be the leading characteristic of THE TRIBUNE.

2. The candid and thorough discussion of those principles which underlie all facts, is also an essential of a good public journal. In this department THE TRIBUNE will strive to uphold the Truth and the Right. Established on an independent foundation, it will seek to maintain its position by a fair expression of considerate, yet decided opinions. It will defend whatever it regards as lawful, just and sound, and discountenance all that is false, factitious and fraudulent.

3. For the efficient carrying out of its design, THE TRIBUNE is arranged in eight Departments, to each of which a competent and responsible person is wholly devoted. Of these the Commercial Department is under the charge of E. A. Stewart, Esq., one of the founders of THE TRIBUNE, whose established reputation throughout the West, as Commercial Editor, saves the necessity of commendation. The Home Department, which is edited by a Lady, has been added lately for the sake of making THE TRIBUNE a welcome visitor to the Home Circle, as well as to the counting room and the office.

4. Arrangements are completed for Correspondence from New York, Washington, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Boston, Cincinnati, New Orleans, St. Louis, and the Capitals and larger towns of our own and neighboring States. Letters will be received also, during the year, from at least four regular correspondents in Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany. THE TRIBUNE'S corps of Letter Writers has been made up with care, and includes gentlemen of undoubted ability, accomplished education, and high standing in the country.

5. THE TRIBUNE will support a system of national policy that shall defend our home interest and maintain our credit at home. It will advocate a discriminating Protective Tariff, Harbor and River Improvements; the donation of the Public Lands to actual settlers; the solution of agitating foreign Questions by honorable negotiation, unembarrassed by lawless encroachments; direct appeal to the PEOPLE, so far as possible, on public questions and public officers; and the loosening of the South to bear the heavy burdens and heavier responsibilities of its peculiar institution, without irritation, and resistance by the North to its removal, or aid from the national government for its extension.

Its hope of a high destiny for this Land of Freedom is founded on its Faith in Progress as the best Inspirer, in the Past as the best Teacher, in the People as the best Sovereigns, in Whig Principles as the best Policy, in Republicanism as the best System, in Christianity as the best Regenerator, and in the West as the great arena.

Election.

Remember the election [illegible] in place of the Cook County [illegible] all our elec[illegible] of Judge Dickey [illegible] of the Bench [illegible] If any popular [illegible] fall, fair and free expres[illegible] it should be these.—[illegible] party men, and scraps of men, will [illegible] to fill many of the public pla[illegible] political honor and financial ad[illegible] devotion and fidelity to their party be[illegible] highest standard of action required. But the Judge should be honored of all men; should look beyond party partitions; should be the impartial protector of the rights of all, for to him these rights are of necessity committed, and he should be one with whom the relation of the community is that of confidence. Let all go to the polls in the dignity and fidelity of true patriots, knowing for whom they vote and why they vote.

Two Kinds of Stealing.

The Democratic papers are charging Mr. Corwin with having made fraudulent use of the money accumulated in the N. Y. Sub-Treasury, while he was Secretary. The matter is now undergoing a rigid examination at Washington.

There is such a thing in this world as gaining by years of honest, upright, straight forward conduct, a character which is respected and trusted by the community. And it also happens in this world that men who have earned such a character have some enemies also, and some enemies from this very fact—men who hate the good because their own works are evil. And it also happens that these enemies strive to destroy the hard won character of the upright man. Not unfrequently they succeed.

Tom Corwin is such a man. Last year his enemies combined to ruin him through the Gardiner matter. The charges were so boldly put and so stoutly asseverated that some timid ones trembled for his fair fame. But there were those who had faith, who believed in Corwin's character—sustained—unquestioned, through many years of trial and scrutiny. That faith was well founded. The facts were rigidly examined before a committee appointed by a democratic Congress, and Corwin was triumphantly acquitted. Now again are his enemies baying on his track. But those who have faith now far out number the timid.

We may take a queer view of morals, but we think there is a crime as bad as that of stealing money, and that is stealing character. Democratic papers are at present revelling in this iniquity. They first charge on Corwin dishonesty, demand investigation, and then cry "guilty" before the trial. They give the man no chance, but howl through the country his coveted infamy. They gloat over the anticipated ruin of a noble character. They seem in ecstacies at the bare possibility of a leading officer of the United States Government—their own Government—being convicted of a felony. Shame; shame on such partisanship as this! Is it so that public officers of our land must be hunted down in this way? that there is no defence, no protection against charges as black as they are unfounded? Is reputation to be thus dragged down to infamy because of a man's political sentiment?

And yet the N. Y. Evening Post, with characteristic malignity, is now seeking to ruin Thomas Corwin as is sought to ruin DANIEL WEBSTER, and a few democratic papers of the country are found who will follow this lead with equal unscrupulousness. The Democratic Press is one of these. It says "his (Corwin's) conduct in [illegible] would imply that his moral perceptions were sadly befogged, [illegible] completely obliterated." Mr. Press! what do you mean by such a charge? Where are the many cases? Say where or when? The only case you can mention is the Gardiner one, and you know that in that he was triumphantly acquitted. And because a man is once falsely charged with crime is that to be taken as prima facie evidence that now he is justly charged? And is that once to be multiplied into "many?" What sort of morality is that?—"A man is innocent till he is proved to be guilty," we thought was democratic doctrine, but you reverse it. Corwin is a man. He has the sensibilities of other men. His reputation is just as dear to him, and quite as valuable as those of Mr. Scripps or Mr. Bross are to them.—What right have you to seek to rend it from him? Does allegiance to the democratic party compel to the disregard of the plainest principles of justice? Will it not allow you to wait till a man is proved to be guilty before you pronounce sentence!

THE ROCKFORD BRIDGE.—The construction and engine cars are crossing the Railroad Bridge in their business operations, and the regular trains will pass over in a few days. The Forum says that this Bridge is the best in the State, making a grand appearance from the town, as well as affording an excellent view of the same to passengers when crossing.

HOGS PACKED IN THE WEST.

Under this head the Cincinnati Price Current, of the 18th inst., publishes a corrected statement of the hogs packed in the West, in 1852–3, compared with the statements made up for the three previous seasons. The previous publications on this subject magnified the number packed in 1852–3, so as to create something of a panic among dealers, and the Price Current has sought to get a correct statement. So far as the States of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Missouri and Tennessee are concerned, it may be as nearly correct as any other statement that has ever been made, but in reference to Illinois, it is not so, for we observe that the amount packed in this city, during the last two seasons, is entirely overlooked,—an omission of some importance when it is considered that during the past season the number of hogs packed here, constitutes 25 per cent. of the total number reported for the State.

We annex the aggregate number packed in each State, adding those of Chicago for the last two seasons:

	1849-50	1850-51	1851-52	1852-53
OHIO.

Cumberland Valley	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]

The total summing up is as follows:

	1849-50	1850-51	1851-52	1852-53
[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Total	1,414,654	1,347,231	1,286,798	1,428,386

According to these figures the number of hogs packed in the West, during the season just passed, was only 1,567 greater than the entire number packed. The estimate for Ohio is greatly below what was published about six weeks ago, and the same is also [illegible] of this State. Nevertheless, we are confident that the statement for the past year is too small by at least 100,000, though we have no data for it, further than what may be shown in the fact that the Price Current left Chicago out of its calculation. But even suppose it were 100,000 too small,—a very improbable thing,—there would be nothing in that to create alarm among Packers, for it is well known that the average weight of the hogs packed during the past season was at least ten per cent. less than the average of those packed during the previous year. Of the 48,156 head packed here in Chicago, the falling off was even greater than that,—being over eleven per cent., as was shown by our complete statistics of the business, at the close of each year. The reason is obvious. The high price of Pork last season called out of the farmer's hands everything of the swine kind six months old and above, that could be fatted and sold.—Previous seasons, too, many farmers packed more or less Pork, for home consumption during the summer, but nothing of the kind was done last year, and the entire pork crop of the West is in the hands of dealers, from whom farmers will have to buy, during the ensuing summer and autumn, unless they forego bacon and pickled pork altogether. Since the year 1836, the farmers have not so completely stripped themselves of pork as they did last winter. These facts, of themselves, are sufficient to give confidence to the future of Pork. But there is also another, of the greatest importance, that should not be overlooked. In the States of Illinois and Missouri, last year, there were not over 5,000 laborers engaged in the construction of railroads; whereas, this year there are 30,000, and enough work for 80,000, if they could be obtained.—Many railroad contractors are offering $1,25 per day—wages unexampled since 1836,—and it needs no argument to show that 40,000 men who get such wages, and whose work gives them an appetite that would be alarming in seasons of short crops, will eat an amount of Pork that will leave but a small amount, comparitively, for export.

Why Not?

☞ We publish to-day S. S. HAYES letter, commented upon in yesterday's Tribune, at the request of a number of our readers who have been unable to see it, from the impossibility of getting hold of a copy of the Democratic Press. If the Democrat had re-printed it—and why does not the Democrat reprint it? The Press says that it "sincerely regrets" the publication of the letter; that it does not approve of the letter, in fine the letter is all wrong, yet the Press published it because it is true democratic doctrine for "individual democrats to express their views freely upon all subjects pertaining to the interests of the party and the country through their own papers." If the Democrat had published it—and why does not the Democrat publish it, if it is "democratic" to publish it? Is not the Democrat a democratic paper?

New Indictment.

The Grand Jury of Grant County, Wisconsin, presented an indictment against a paper currency as a nuisance. The people of that section have for years confined the circulating medium almost exclusively to specie. One clause of the indictment reads thus:

That in our opposition to the use of Bank paper as a common currency, we would not be understood as expressing any disapprobation of the system of exchange as practised between our own and distant parts of the country, but that we are decidedly opposed to the circulation and use of shinplasters and other paper money; also, that we prefer our present metallic currency to any other.

Tornado in Indiana.

The South Bend Register states that a destructive tornado passed over the north part of the State last week. It scattered the fences, mowed a road through the thickest timber of about eighty rods wide, uprooting trees small and large with perfect ease. On the east side of Portage Prairie, it unroofed Esq. Witter's barn, laid his trees flat, carried off some pannels of his fence to parts unknown, stole a rick of straw, and did divers other injuries. It unroofed houses and barns by the dozen. As far as known at South Bend, no lives had been lost, but one young lady had her arm broken. At one house their week's wash of clothing, which was hanging to dry in the loft, was carried off and lost. Some persons saw the tornado lift a calf from the ground, whirl it around with great force, and carry it a considerable distance into the woods, where it was afterwards found unhurt. At Keobler & Ducy's farm on Harris Prairie, a wagon was standing in the yard. After the hurricane had passed, the wagon box was found splintered to pieces, the wagon forcibly uncoupled, and one of the axles broken short off in the hub.

CONCERT AT ROCKFORD.—The citizens of Rockford have sent an earnest invitation to Ole Bull and Strakosch, to give a Concert in that place, and we are happy to hear that there is some prospect of its acceptance.

THE NEW ALBANY AND SALEM R. R.—Last Monday the passenger train commenced running from Michigan City to the end of the finished portion, 35 miles north of Lafayette, there connecting with stages which will place the traveler who leaves Michigan City in the morning, at Lafayette in the evening.

Letter from S. S. Hayes, Esq.

To the People, and especially the Democracy of the State of Illinois:—

Although I have neither place nor power, I claim the right, in common with you all, to arraign before my fellow citizens any one of our public servants that has misused his trust, or proved himself unworthy of support. I also claim the right to hold up to the condemnation of my fellow democrats any office seeker, who, with loud words of democracy on his lips, is stabbing the democratic party in its vitals.

After sufficient delay and mature deliberation, I charge one of our Senators in Congress, the Hon. Stephen A. Douglas, with misuse of the position which he holds, and hostility to the democratic party, shown in his proscription of its true friends, and promoting its late enemies. I charge him with committing the execution of the laws of the United States to a person who has avowed sentiments inconsistent with the proper performance of such duties, in respect to matters on which depend the peace of the country, and the existance of the Union itself.

Permit me to say that I have ever sustained the Senator, when I thought he was right; and that I have been his faithful friend. That my motive in this publication is not hostility to any of the appointees; and that with Mr. Hoyne in particular, so far as I know, my personal relations have ever been of the kindest character. Neither do I write because of dissapointment in failing to get the office for which I applied. I used neither interest nor effort to obtain the place. I merely indicated to some of our Congressmen a willingness to accept it, if thought advisable, and for the public good; and, had any other capable and consistent democrat been appointed, I would have uttered no complaint. I am impelled to the course I now take only by self respect, and regard for the welfare of my party and country.

I shall refer to some of the other appointments incidentally; but the immediate subject of these remarks is the appointment of Thomas Hoyne, Esq., to be United States District Attorney for this State, in preference to Hon. Norman H. Purple, Hon. Julius Manning, and myself, whose names were also proposed for the same office.

And first, as to the manner in which the appointments were made.

The Senator and his colleagues, with certain ex-members of Congress, assumed for themselves [illegible] right to decide, in [illegible] of the democrats of this State should be [illegible] office within it.

If such a power could be properly assumed by them, it was their duty to exercise it so as to represent the wishes and views of the districts for which the appointments were made. That, I hold to be the true doctrine and right practice, in regard to all appointments. This duty they violated in several instances. First, they organized the caucus upon a basis of the grossest inequality. Three congressional districts, the first, second, and seventh, were allowed five votes; while six districts, the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, eighth, and ninth, were allowed but three. Mr. Wentworth's district, the second, had two votes; and three others, the third, fourth, and sixth, had none at all. Secondly, the ex members of two of the first three districts referred to, viz:—Messrs. Campbell and Molony, were admitted to vote in the caucus, although they were themselves applicants for office before the same caucus (they were recommended by it, and afterwards appointed.) And thirdly, many of the men whom they caused to be appointed were notoriously objectionable to the democrats of the localities that had an interest in the offices in which they were placed.

To meet the assumption that the appointment of Mr. Hoyne was necessary as an act of justice to the free soil and abolition Pierce men, I will remark, that those of that class who are honest, were convinced of their former error, and voted for Gen. Pierce, under a sense of duty. They must naturally be disgusted, to see the dangerous men who led them astray, called to honorable stations, as a reward for their misdeeds. Let that be as it may, without that appointment, the free soilers were more than well provided for.—The Cass vote of 1848 shows the strength of the old line democrats. Some, like Mr. Wentworth, hated Cass and his principles, yet voted the regular ticket, to keep alive a claim for the spoils, but they were very few. But Cass' vote of 1848, in this State, was 53,300; the Van Buren vote was only 15,774; and the number of Cass men, who joined the freesoilers afterwards, was probably not greater than the whig vote which Mr. Van Buren received. Now look at the appointments. Hon. Thompson Campbell is made Commissioner of Land Claims in California. Dr. Molony is carried over into the Danville district, and placed in the Land Office; to reward him perhaps for his famous letter of October 8th, 1850, in which he promises so "distinctly," "emphatically," "cordially," and "decidedly," to vote for and advocate bills, repealing the Fugitive Slave Law, prohibiting slavery in the territories, and prohibiting slavery in the District of Columbia; and to oppose the admission of "slave states" into the Union. Mr. Long, another freesoiler, is appointed Register of the Land Office in this district. Mr. Snowhook, also once a freesoiler, takes the Collectorship, with an increased and large salary. And all the other appointments at Chicago, except the Postmaster, are given to active partisans of Mr. John Wentworth, who for many years have pandered to the abolition sentiment.

I come now to consider more particularly the appointment of Mr. Hoyne; and I will remark that he had the rare good luck of being one of the adherents of Mr. Wentworth who was not cheated; for if he toiled hard last fall helping the Congressman to beat an old democrat, Mr. Isaac Cook, the Congressman repaid his exertions with interest this spring; and by the help of the Senator, succeeded quite well.

Let me ask your attention to the following letters:

Chicago, March 25, 1853.

DEAR SIR:—It is reported here that you aided in procuring Mr. Hoyne to be appointed U. S. Attorney for this State.

I do not wish to injure you, but only to see justice done. I would, therefore, be glad to know from you what truth there is in the report. Yours res'y,

S. S. HAYES.

Hon. S. A. DOUGLAS, U. S. S., Washington City, D. C.

Washington, April 9th, 1853.

DEAR SIR:—Although the spirit of your letter would authorise me to make no reply to your interrogatory, I have no hesitation in saying that Mr. Hoyne was appointed with my concurrence and approbation.

Very res'y, your ob't serv't,

S. A. DOUGLAS.

S. S. Hayes, Esq., Chicago, Ill.

I now present some documentary evidence.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, Cook County. } ss.

I, E. S. Kimberly, Clerk of the County Court, and keeper of the poll books of said county, do hereby certify that at the Presidential election held in the South Division of Chicago, on the 7th day of November, A. D. 1848, L. W. Ross, S. S. Hayes, M. E. Hollister, E. Lansing, W. L. Ferguson, F. Ferman, H. M. Vandever, W. Martin, and J. Manning, were voted for as electors on the Cass ticket; and W. B. Ogden, J. W. Buffum, H. B. Evans, L. F. Torry, Thos. Hoyne, G. L. Granmer, Abm. Hoes, J. Blanchard, and G. B. Arnold, were voted for as electors on the Van Buren ticket. And that it appears from the said poll-books that the vote of Thomas Hoyne was given for W. B. Ogden, J. W. Buffum, H. B. Evans, L. F. Torry, Thomas Hoyne, G. L. Granmer, Abm. Hoes, J. Blanchard, and G. B. Arnold.

{ SEAL } Witness my hand and seal of office, at Chicago, this 18th day of April, A. D. 1853. E. S. KIMBERLY, Clerk.

Senator Douglas has resided at Chicago some years, and is well acquainted with the course of Mr. Hoyne. I assume with confidence that he did not communicate the facts, either to the President, or the Senate. He has avowed his participation, as was proper, after voting for Mr. Hoyne in the caucus, taking his name to the executive as the person who would be most acceptable to the Democracy of Illinois, and voting for his final confirmation in the Senate.

It is true a mighty temptation loomed up before the Senator. His heart was set on the Presidential Chair. He might well have supposed, that this matter would slip by, and be forgotten, while its true complexion and his own complicity would remain unknown to the public, because no one would dare to expose them or to call him to account, and that in the mean time the transaction could be used quietly to his advantage in the proper quarters. But he should have stood firm; and the sequel shows that if such were his views he had made a grave mistake.

If, contrary to my expectation, he can show that his act was but an oversight, and his fault was only a thoughtless forgetfulness of duty,—no one will rejoice more than I.

I bring these charges chiefly against him, because he is the only one of the parties whom the Democracy of the whole State can reach; because, as I have said, he lived at Chicago and knew the facts; and because the appointment is his act; as it would not have received another vote in the caucus, besides those of its originator Mr. Wentworth, and Dr. Molony, (who would have voted for anybody to get in return a vote for himself,) unless those persons could have said to the other delegates, that it met the approval of the Senator, the oldest member from the State, and lately our candidate for the Presidency. All of his coadjutors to whom these strictures will apply, may take them also to themselves.

I have mentioned that the names of Judge Purple, Mr. Manning, and myself, were presented for the recommendation. It will be seen from the Clerk's certificate, that Mr. Manning and myself were democratic electors in 1848.—We were nominated as such by a convention of the democratic party, and elected by the people of the State.

Mr. Manning is well known as a lawyer of eminent ability, and the consideration in which he is held, appears from the fact that he was chosen to preside over the electoral college.—Judge Purple was appointed by a Democratic Legislature to the Supreme bench, and has a wide reputation as a jurist of great talents and attainments, and a pure and consistent democrat. As to myself, I have nothing to say, except that I have worked hard in the democratic ranks for ten years, have taken the field for Polk, for Cass, and for Pierce, and have undergone as much labor in support of our party and principles as any other man of my age in the State. And for the truth of the assertion, I appeal to the gallant Democracy of Southern Illinois.

Mr. Hoyne, I have proved to have been a Van Buren elector of 1848. That he was active and untiring, and did serious damage to the democratic party, the people of this Congressional district can bear witness. His fervor and zeal are shown in the numerous meetings he addressed. He was besides a delegate to the State Convention of the "Free Democracy," member of the corresponding committee of the "Free Soil League," for which he drew the Constitution, and member of the Van Buren State Central Committee. In one meeting, he offered resolutions denouncing Senator Douglas for his hostility to "freedom," also denouncing his present friend, Mr. Wentworth, as a traitor who betrayed with a kiss. In another, which he addressed with great eclat, three groans were given for the Senator. The platform of his principles will be found in the resolutions of the State "Free Soil Convention" which nominated him for elector. As a sample of their quality, I offer you the following:

"Resolved, That the last Slave State has been admitted into the Union.

"Resolved, That we have witnessed with shame and indignation the course pursued by our Senators in Congress," (Breese and Douglas, "their treacherous desertion of the principles of Freedom, and their base subserviency to the behests of Slavery—as exhibited by their affirmative votes on the infamous so-called 'Compromise Bill.'

"Resolved, That we will submit to no compromise on the subject of Slavery, but will wash our hands of the foul crime, and will say to those who oppose us, 'let this sin be upon you, and not upon us.'"

To show the temper and style of his addresses, I present you an extract from his speech after the election, reported in the Chicago Daily Tribune (the Free Soil organ) of Nov. 16th, '48. "Their action" (that of the Free-Soilers) "had foiled the parricidal hands of Congress when night in the Union had stabbed Liberty at midnight... 'Compromise Bill,'" and [illegible] the infa[illegible] from his speech on the 4th of July, 1848, reported in the same paper:

"The Great Northern Slave."

"Mr Hoyne handled Cass without gloves in his speech at the mass meeting on the 4th. He was, he said, the greatest slave in the country. The South had bought him and now were anxious to trade him off to the North, but they would not succeed. The true democracy did not deal in slaves, least of all such a slave as he. He differed from the plantation slaves of the South. They were owned by somebody and sold without any will of their own. Cass was so complete a slave in spirit that he sold himself.

In justice to Mr. Hoyne, I will say most cheerfully that he is a gentleman of respectability, and that he professes to have seen the error of his former course, and to be deeply impressed with the odiousness of free-soil principles. That the Democratic party owe him any thing for his abjuration of those principles, and his return to his former faith, I am sure he will not contend.

The office of district attorney and marshall are almost the only national offices within our limits, in which the entire State is interested. I assert boldly that the appointees to those offices should have been such as the majority of the Democracy of the whole State would approve; and I assert, with equal boldness, that the appointment of Mr. Hoyne does not meet with the approval of one tenth of the Democracy of Illinois. In making this appointment, then, the Senator has misused his position, and broken the trust which he has assumed.

Again, the duties of the United States attorney are of peculiar and serious moment. The laws of Congress are to be enforced through his agency. Has a fugitive slave been rescued, and his owner assailed by a mob? It is the duty of the attorney to prosecute the rioters to conviction. How mournful to witness awkward attempts of an ex-freesoiler to defend the rights of property against the "higher law" and the "rights of manhood." What his confusion, when marshalled round in dark array, are seen horrid shapes, "chimeras dire" of wo and blood, and tears, called from the grave of his former speeches, by the wand of the defendant's counsel. Is not the committing of that office to such hands a direct denial to our southern brethren of those remedies which under the constitution and laws they are entitled to, and which are the only safeguard of their rights? I think they will so regard it.

The only difference between Messrs. Manning and Purple, on the one side, and Mr. Hoyne, on the other, not to the advantage of the former gentlemen, was, that he had bolted, while they had been true to their party. The conclusion is inevitable that the appointment was made because of that difference, or, in other words, because he had bolted, because he had been a Van Buren elector.

Old democrats! Cass men! go back with me to 1848. What a spectacle! On one side is the enemy. The drum beats. Behold! The great democratic army marches into battle. On their banner is inscribed, "The Constitution," "The National Honor," "The Rights of the People," "The safety of all the States." An illustrious statesman and patriot leads the van. On they tramp, confident, exulting. But lo! a defection takes place. A troop of disappointed and misguided men draw off from the ranks, and turn their fire upon their friends. The sacred banner trails in the dust of defeat, and the great leader is overborne,—greater in defeat—destined to see Clays and Websters adopt his sentiments, and rally to his cause—destined to the throbbing gratitude of a great nation's heart—destined to the historic page, and monumental fame;—but he is overborne. Now, what do we see? His judgment vindicated, his cause triumphant, his friends in power, yet the leaders of this same deserting troop invested in the robes of office, enriched with the spoils of victory!

Why is it that this thing is done? Is it to harmonize the party? Away with such harmony. It is delusive as a dream. It is offering a premium to faction and sedition. It is saying, Desert your standard again in time of need, agitate; shake the Union to the centre; bring disaster upon your party and your country;—then come in at the eleventh hour, and Presidential aspirants shall take you to their bosoms, the scarred veterans of many battles, shall give place to you and the best offices of the government shall be yours.—This may be policy. It is not justice. It may promote the success of ambitious men, but it is death to the democratic party. That party stands on the eternal principles of popular freedom, State sovereignty, and constitutional safeguards; and after the politicians of the present day have turned to dust, warm hearts, and clear heads, and strong arms will be striving for those principles. We owe it to them, the future democracy of America, that our organization shall descend to them pure and perfect, undefiled by treachery, unstained by corruption.

It is true I went to Baltimore last spring to promote the nomination of Senator Douglas for the presidency. I did so out of friendship, out of gratitude for his Chicago speech, and because I hoped he would be an honest and able President, if elected. Since, he has forgotten the ancient landmarks and run after strange idols, though with pain and regret, I [illegible] for him no more, until I see evidence of his radical change, and I think it well that he was beaten.

When, in the trying time of 1850, the Senator called me, a private man, to his help; when we sat down together and prepared the Chicago resolutions; when, after his great speech, the Abolition hosts, incited by the "Democrat," gathered madly on his track, renewed the war, and demolished the Senator's speech as they boasted; and amidst hisses, and wild outcries, and threats, I arose and promised to show the emptiness of their boasts, which promise I redeemed to the best of my feeble powers, the same week, before four thousand men; out of devotion to my country and the Senator, risking my hopes of success in life, and gaining the undying hatred of Wentworth and his allies; I little thought that in two short years the Senator would be found in league with the same Wentworth to punish me and better men for the crime of being Cass men and anti-abolitionists, and to reward a Van Buren Elector and Wentworth man for the merit of having been a Free Soiler.

I now leave the Senator, with the remark, that I shall always be ready to maintain these issues before the people, humble as I am.

Very respectfully, your fellow citizen,

S. S. HAYES.

The First Grand Concert.

The Concert of Thursday eve'g surpassed anything of the kind our city has ever enjoyed, both in the character and rare performances of the artists, and also in the size and excitement of the audience. Tremont Hall was never before so full of music and mankind, married and maiden, and of,—shall we say it—miasma. But in spite of the hard time the lungs of artist, instrument and audience had, yet delicious strains and harmonies were breathed out in lavish abundance.

Ole Bull poured forth, in a way wholly worthy of the generosity and music in his noble breast. He was heartily welcomed, and we were glad to see that he looked as vigorous and almost as young as when he first came to his American home. Neither has the business of life weaned him from his violin. He draws it closely to him, and they seem to commune in a loving and complete union. We have no room to specify the many points of interest and beauty, but must say that the double harmonies in the "Witch's Dance," astonished us more than anything else. Paginini himself would have been delighted.

Strakosch shone forth in his speaking face and modest mein, as well as in his exquisite music. The graceful variations on "Old Folks at home" were appreciated. He led upon the stage the captivating little bird, Adelina Patti, his sister-in-law, and his pride and pleasure in her were clearly understood, when her sweet notes were given out. The audience were taken by surprise. They were not at all prepared for her perfect execution of the most difficult passages, and the ease with which she does it almost blinds the hearer to the extreme difficulties of the pieces she performs.

It is not easy to imagine her high position as an artist ten years hence, if she continues to progress. Her "Ah! non giunge" still echoes deliciously in our ears, and the exquisite "Jamor" was beautifully prophetic not only of the future artist but of the woman.

The arrangements and general management of the concert were most satisfactory, and for this we are indebted to the thorough oversight of Mr. Grau. We must ask him, however, to see if possible to a better ventilation of the room.

P. S. We are happy to learn that the Messrs. Gage of the Tremont have made some arrangements by which the Hall will have a more free circulation of air, which will materially add to the comfort of all parties. The artists will appreciate any improvement even more than the audience; for, being elevated, they breathe a worse layer of atmosphere.

CATTLE SHOW. To day, about noon, our city is to be favored with a show of choice cattle. They will pass through the principal streets, and will no doubt speak for themselves.

The Illinois Central Railroad Co. } Applicat'on for Injunction. Before Hon. JOHN DEAN CATON, Judge of the Sup. Court.

THE argument of this case having taken place before Judge Caton on the 7th and 8th inst., at Ottawa. The case was argued by I. N. Arnold and James H. Collins, Esq., for Mr. Walker, and James F. Joy, Esq., for Defendants.

The Judge took the case under advisement. The decision was received yesterday, granting the Injunction.

The following is a copy of the order granting the Injunction:

State of Illinois, in the Cook Co Court of Common Pleas.

Charles Walker vs. The Illinois Central Railroad et al. } In CHANCERY.

Let an Injunction issue in this suit restraining the defendants from erecting the obstructions described in the bill, in Lake Michigan in front of the complainant's lots, until the further order of the Cook County Court of Common Pleas, or until they shall by negotiations with the complainant obtain his written permission to progress with the same, or until they shall have filed a petition in the Circuit Court of Cook County, or in the Cook County Court of Common Pleas, or in the Circuit Court of some adjoining county, for the purpose of having Commissioners appointed to assess the damages which will be sustained by the complainant by the erection of said works in front of or upon said lots, and shall also have obtained an assessment of said damages and paid the same according to the provisions of the statute, or shall have obtained the appointment of such Commissioners by the Judge of said Court in which the petition shall be filed, or by the Judge or a Justice of the County Court of the county in which said petition shall be filed and have procured an assessment of said damages and filed the same, or in case either party shall appeal from said assessment, they shall file with the Clerk of said Court in which the petition is filed a bond as required by the twelfth section of the act of June 22d, 1852, or after the appointment of said Commissioners shall have paid a sufficient sum into the Court in which the proceedings shall be pending, or shall give security to be approved by the said Court or the Judge thereof, to pay the compensation in that behalf when assessed, and shall thereupon obtain a rule of the said Court or the Judge thereof, authorising them to take possession or to prosecute said work according to the case which may be made in the petition to be filed as aforesaid. J. D. CATON, Just. Sup. Court.

MARRIED,

On the 21st, by Rev. John Clark, Mr. JOHN BROUGHTON, to Mrs. MARY PENNINGTON, all of Chicago.

DIED,

At Half Day, Lake Co., Ill., on Saturday, April 16th, of consumption, SAMUEL CLINGMAN, aged 18 years.

BOARD OF TRADE.

An adjourned meeting of the members of the Board of Trade will be held this evening at their rooms at 7½ o'clock. Members not present at the annual meeting are especially requested to attend. [illegible] T. B. HILLIARD, Sec'y.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Ninety-six cars, loaded with merchandize, arrived here by this road yesterday. The business of the road is immense, and is far beyond the expectation of its Directors. Besides its great freight business, it daily brings into our city long trains of cars filled with passengers. The Central is one of the best equipped and managed roads in the United States, and will grow in public favor the more it is tried.

The Concert of this evening will be a brilliant affair. It is unnecessary to specify its attractions, for the large sale of tickets yesterday, shows that the appetite grows with the luxuries it feasted upon on Thursday evening. Many are coming in from other places. There is no resisting the drawing of such c(h)ords as are touched by Ole Bull and Strakosch. They are "the cords of a man." The sale of tickets yesterday was even more large and spirited than that of Wednesday.

NEW DODGE.—We have seen lately at one of our Crockery Stores the last new dodge, used by the imbibers down East, where the Maine Liquor Law is in operation. It was an earthen article, done up in the book form, and looked marvellously like a Prayer Book, bound in tortoise shell, but we should judge that it generally breathed an entirely different spirit.

OLE BULL.—Capt. Van Schaick has taken a fine Daguerreotype of Ole Bull, which may be seen at his rooms.

OPEN AGAIN.—Bank of Chicago.

RAILROAD STRIKE.—All the hands on the Central Railroad between Freeport and the western terminus, were on a strike last week, and on Monday were coming out from Freeport to drive off a few hands at Nora who would not join them. Such movements as these are becoming altogether too frequent. Refusal to work under certain wages, is one thing, but interference with others, who choose to work, is quite another. One is a right we all have, but the other is tyranny. Every one participating in such lawless meddling, ought to be walked off to the Penitentiary. It is simply a form of despotism—the despotism of physical force. If the persons employed on our public works entertain such ideas of liberty, they should be speedily enlightened, by looking at the relations of society through the geometrical and regular forms of an iron grating.

The ATLANTA BANK OF GEORGIA, recently chartered by the Legislature of that State, is now owned by the subscribers, and as such owners, they are personally liable for all issues in terms of the act of incorporation. LOCK HOSPITAL.

No. 150 Washington Street.

THE ONLY CERTAIN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF Secret Diseases at 150 Washington street. By the strict system established at the Lock Hospital, 150 Washington st., all patients are secure of absolute privacy. The advantages of this system are too well known to need any comment. All who have any need of advice or attention from Dr. D., may confide in him with a full assurance of secrecy and certain hope of recovery. Some of the most learned and famous men in the country have been under his charge—men of genius, intellect and power—and in no instance has the strictness of privacy been violated.

Invalids must be cautioned against the illiterate and unlearned in science, who do so much injury by quackery and imposition. The Vegetable Medicines of Dr. D. are now sufficiently established, as the only certain remedy for Venerial complaints, and those who are afflicted with such complaints are seriously warned not to tamper with them, by trusting those who practice the abuse of mercury or balsam.

Dr. D. freely invites all troubled with disorders to call upon him. His charges are regulated by the circumstances of the case. No charge will be made where a cure is not effected. Dr. D. is a regular physician, having devoted many years to the exclusive study of these diseases, comprising, in their various shades, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Impotency, Strictures, Gleet, Scrofula, diseases of the bones, &c. Nothing is needed but to call upon him, to make everything satisfactory in a moment. Such is the absolute efficacy of the method of his cure, that no question can possibly exist about it, when once an individual becomes acquainted with the wholesome and certain process. It is but for a man to say he is afflicted, and see himself cured.

The greatest point for the consideration of everybody is, to avoid all communication with persons unqualified to give them relief. Serious and dangerous consequences ensue more than the world is aware of, from the treatment of quacks and impostors.

The only certain way is to visit the Lock Hospital, or Dr. D's office, at No. 150 Washington street, and at once place yourself under his care.

Office will be kept open from 9 A. M. until 10 P. M.

All letters (post-paid) will receive prompt attention. Any person wishing a private room, un ilcured, can have it by applying to Dr. D.

DR. ATKINSON,

Confidential Physician, 207 Randolph street, corner of Franklin, continues to cure all cases of disease of a Confidential nature, with secrecy and dispatch. His charges are moderate, success certain, and conduct honorable. Private Rooms, and entrance on Franklin street. Worst cases solicited. Letters from city or country, addressed to Dr. A., box 800, P. O., will meet due attention, and medicine can be sent secure to any part.

WISTAR'S

Balsam of Wild Cherry,

The Great Remedy for Consumption.

And the Best Medicine Known to Man

For Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaints, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding at the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, Pains and Weakness in the Side, Breast, &c., and all other diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a

DISEASED LIVER.

In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances, when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action; and in many instances effected permanent cures after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in Asthma, a complaint in which it has been very extensively used, with decided success, even in cases of years' standing.

RHEUMATISM AND GOUT.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a most extraordinary medicine for the cure of Rheumatism and Gout, because they not only clean out the stomach and bowels of those morbid humors which, if taken into the circulation and thrown upon the membrane and muscle, are the cause of the above painful maladies; but they excite the absorbent vessels to take up that which is already deposited, and therefore are absolutely certain to make a perfect cure of Rheumatism and Gout. A single twenty-five cent box of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills will often give the most astonishing relief; and perseverance according to directions will be certain to drive pain of every description from the body.

WEEKLY REVIEW of the CHICAGO MARKET.

Office of the Chicago Daily Tribune, Tuesday Evening, April 26—7 P. M.

Since our last Weekly Review of the Markets and State of Trade, the animation in every department of business has manifestly increased. The Dry Goods business, in the jobbing departments, never was more active, and cases are checked off about as rapidly as they are broken. Up to this time, our jobbers, though constantly receiving large stocks, have been unable to keep up with the demand.—The Grocery trade, also, is active beyond all precedent. The circle of our trade is this year greatly extended, and reaches points we had not even hoped for heretofore.—The Boot and Shoe trade is also active, and our dealers are filling orders to go to Missouri and Iowa.—Lumber, Shingles and Lath are coming in from Lake very freely, and the sales of week are larger than during any previous week since navigation opened.

But it is in the Produce trade that the greatest improvement has taken place. In our last Review we noticed this as the only feature of the business of the city which was not flattering. Since then, a great change has taken place, and there is an active demand for Grain, for shipment and the local trade.—Wheat is in better request for milling, and sales show an advance of from 1 to 3 cents on low and good grades.—Corn has also advanced, and the market closes very firm, with an active shipping demand.—Oats have gone up from 1 to 2 cents, at which large transactions have taken place, and the market still has an upward tendency. Barley is active, and prices firm, under an active local demand.—Rye is nominally the same, but no sales.—Seeds are dull, and receipts small.—Provisions are not in demand beyond the wants of the local trade. Mess Pork is a little more firm, but we have no change to note. Mess Beef in very little demand. Lard selling slowly to the local trade at unchanged rates. Whitefish comes in freely, but the demand for the local trade and the eastern market is large, and prices are firm. Butter continues to be scarce, and the local trade has absorbed nearly all of the ... in the market. Nevertheless there is no change in rates. Eggs are in large receipt, but the shipping demand sustains the market. Cheese is scarce, but there is no change in rates, the demand being very small. Potatoes are in about as ... supply from railroad and store, and we have no improvement to notice.

The receipts of Produce by Railroad, during the week, ending the 23d inst., compared with the receipts for the week ending April 16th, were as follows:

WORMS! WORMS!

Various theories have been started relative to the origin of intestinal worms, and yet the question is still a vexed one among medical authorities. Of one fact, however, all are informed, and in which all agree—the fatal nature of the influence they exert on children. At this season of the year the attacks of worms are most frequent as well as most dangerous. We take great pleasure in directing the attention of parents to the Vermifuge of Dr. M'Lane. It is one of the most extraordinary medicines ever introduced to the public, and has never failed of success when tried. For sale by Druggists of Chicago, and by Country Merchants.

LOCK HOSPITAL.

No. 150 Washington Street.

THE ONLY CERTAIN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF Secret Diseases at 150 Washington street. By the strict system established at the Lock Hospital, 150 Washington st., all patients are secure of absolute privacy. The advantages of this system are too well-known to need any comment. All who have any need of advice or attention from Dr. D., may confide in him with a full assurance of secrecy and certain hope of recovery. Some of the most learned and famous men in the country have been under his charge—men of genius, intellect and power—and in no instance has the strictness of privacy been violated.

Invalids must be cautioned against the illiterate and unlearned in science, who do so much injury by quackery and imposition. The Vegetable Medicines of Dr. D. are now sufficiently established, as the only certain remedy for Venereal complaints, and those who are afflicted with such complaints are seriously warned not to tamper with them, by those who practice the abuse of mercury or balsam treating them.

Dr. D. freely invites all troubled with disorders to call upon him. His charges are regulated by the circumstances of the case. No charge will be made where a cure is not effected. Dr. D. is a regular physician, having devoted many years to the exclusive study of these diseases, comprising, in their various shades, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Impotency, Strictures, Gleet, Scrofula, diseases of the bones, &c. Nothing is needed but to call upon him, to make everything satisfactory in a moment. Such is the absolute efficacy of the method of his treatment, that no question can possibly exist about it, when once an individual becomes acquainted with the wholesome and certain process. It is but for a man to say he is afflicted, and see himself cured.

The greatest point for the consideration of everybody is, to avoid all communication with persons unqualified to give them relief. Serious and dangerous consequences ensue more than the world is aware of, from the treatment of quacks and impostors.

The only certain way is to visit the Lock Hospital, or Dr. D's office, at No. 150 Washington street, and at once place yourself under his care.

Office will be kept open from 9 A. M. until 10 P. M.

All letters (post-paid) will receive prompt attention. Any person wishing a private room, un itcured, can have it by applying to Dr. D.

DR. ATKINSON,

Confidential Physician, 207 Randolph street, corner of Franklin, continues to cure all cases of disease of a Confidential nature, with secrecy and dispatch. His charges are moderate, success certain, and conduct honorable. Private Rooms, and entrance on Franklin street. Worst cases solicited. Letters from city or country, addressed to Dr. A., box 850, P. O., will meet due attention, and medicine can be sent secure to any part.

WISTAR'S
Balsam of Wild Cherry,
The Great Remedy for Consumption.

And the Best Medicine Known to Man

For Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaints, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding at the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, Pains and Weakness in the Side, Breast, &c., and all other diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

A very important disease over which this "Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a

DISEASED LIVER.

In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances, when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action; and in many instances effected permanent cures after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in Asthma, a complaint in which it has been very extensively used, with decided success, even in cases of years' standing.

RHEUMATISM AND GOUT.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a most extraordinary medicine for the cure of Rheumatism and Gout, because they not only cleanse the stomach and bowels of those morbid humors which, if taken into the circulation and thrown upon the membrane and muscle, are the cause of the above painful maladies; but they excite the absorbent vessels to take up that which is already deposited, and therefore are absolutely certain to make a perfect cure of Rheumatism and Gout. A single twenty-five cent box of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills will often give the most astonishing relief; and perseverance according to directions will be certain to drive pain of every description from the body.

CALL FOR A PUBLIC MEETING.

To His Honor:
CHARLES M. GRAY, Mayor of the City of Chicago.

The undersigned would respectfully request you to call a meeting of the citizens to-morrow evening, to consider the steps proper to be taken, in view of the late terrible collision of the trains upon the Michigan Central and Southern railroads:

Luther Haven,	Grant Goodrich,
J. S. Wright,	R. S. Blackwell,
Henry Fowler,	George Manierre,
Peter Page,	E. B. McCagg,
J. H. Woodworth,	H. B. Seelye,
A. F. Wurts,	John A. Bross,
Isaac Cook,	W. S. Gurnee,
J. L. Scripps,	J. P. Chapin,
Chas. G. Wicker,	T. A. Stewart,
J. E. Brown,	W. H. Brown,
Alfred Spink,	Geo. F. Rumsey,
Saml. Hoard,	Geo. W. Dole,
R. L. Wilson,	Jona. Burr,
I. N. Arnold,	E. W. Willard,
J. Dyhrenfurth,	R. O. Wight.

In accordance with the above request, I would name the Market Hall on State street and Wednesday evening, the 27th inst., for the meeting of the citizens, to take into consideration the steps proper to be taken in view of the recent terrible accident on the railroads near our city.
CHAS. M. GRAY.

The Collision—What We Expect.

It is not many words we want just now.—Talk is vague. We want deeds. The people expect some things to be done, about this time.

1. They expect, in the first place, this Coroner's Jury to do their work. The people are not going to submit to any dilly-dallyings from them. They have got to look into this matter with a "single eye." Blinking and squinting are supposed to be inappropriate.

2. The people expect the officers of the law to aid and sustain the Jury in a faithful examination into facts.

3. The people expect the Railroad Companies to throw no obstacle in the way of this examination by the Jury, and the railroad companies would do well to avoid all appearance of evil. There has been some queer delay already. The less there is of what the people call "queer" in this matter the better; and the more there is of direct, straight forward action the better, too.

4. And finally, the people expect to come together "as one man" at the City Hall to-night and compare views. They will talk over the whole subject there, and they will talk calmly, temperately, but plainly.

The Collision—What We Want to Know.

1. The people want to know, in the first place, all about those engineers. They want to know whether they were competent or not.—Whether they were acting under orders or not. Whether they were drunk or not.

2. The people want to know whether the train of the Southern Michigan road or the Central road had the "right of way."

3. The people want to know what the regulations of those two roads are in regard to [torn]

P. S.—Since the above was in type these questions have been answered with a good degree of satisfaction, by evidence before the Jury.—We direct attention to it.

FURTHER PARTICULARS!!

Tuesday, 12 M.

CORONERS JURY.

The Jury was called at the Michigan Southern Depot. They were summoned by Constable McHale. Their names are as follows:

E. M. Castle, Foreman; F. M. Murray, N. D. Heath, M. Gleason, P. Coffee, Ruben Taylor, H. Hastings, Patrick Gibbons, W. Pomeroy, M. Dimond, E. Miller, F. O. Wilder.

FIFTEEN bodies have been brought up to the City from the ruins. Seven came by the Southern Road. Their names are as follows:

Thomas Lawler, Irish boy; Goodliss Wagner, German man; Johanna Sildeph, German woman; Herman Sildeph, German boy; John Hunter Earll, American boy; James Dempsey, Irish man; German child, unknown.

The other eight bodies have come up by Central road, and have been carried on to the Southern Depot. Their names are not yet ascertained.

It is thought that one or two more bodies will yet be found, as the ruins are not wholly removed. Besides these fifteen, one man lies at the point of death, if he has not already expired.

The Mails came back by the same Central train that brought the bodies under the care of Mr. s. Dole. One bag has been cut open and it is feared one package at least has been abstracted. The Milwaukee Mail for the East was in the water, otherwise it is thought that all the mails are safe. We shall know accurately soon.

The Jury have begun taking evidence, which we'll publish as fast as we can obtain it. It seems now that our estimate last night, that from 18 to 20 were kill.d, will not be far from right.

Tuesday, 2 o'clock, P. M.

Robbery of the Mail.

We have already stated that the Mail from Galena was partly robbed last night on the ground of the railroad accident. From Mr. Dole we learn that the package for Boston, and about one-half of the small packages have been taken; also the following ones were probably taken, viz:

That of the 24th, for Portland distribution.
" " Providence "
" " Hartford "

This bag contained also the mail for Albany distribution from this city. Some packages of value were no doubt stolen, but probably not the most valuable. A robbery under such circumstances seems too infernal to be possible, especially when the robbers were obliged in getting to the mail, to clamber over dead bodies, staring t' em in the face. The question also comes up, why were not the mails watched?—How could a person commit such a robbery without detection? One person of authority might have easily prevented the possibility of such an occurrence.

Evidence before the 2d Coroner's Jury summoned to sit upon the eight bodies brought up by Central Railroad.

Their names are as follows:

Edward Taylor, Foreman, F. McMurray, H. Hastings, M. Pomeroy, P. Givens, M. Dimond, L. Pardee, D. Walker, D. Johnson, Capt. Ruger, S. Pinchorton, and E. H. Castle.

The following is the list of the eight additional ones:

[illegible] Smith, Little Falls, N. Y.
Stephen D. Gray, Wheelock, Vt.
Edward Misner.
Man, unknown.
Boy, unknown.
Woman, unknown.
W. H. Hoyats, German boy, 3 years old.
Man, unknown, German.
On Misner's draft for $200, on Adams & Co. [illegible] was found.
On S. D. Gray, $200 21
On man unknown, $71.45.
On woman unknown, $22.61.

1st Witness,—Thos. Hunter, Fireman on Mich. Southern Express train; was on board of engine; left depot five minutes after nine for Toledo; did not see the eastern train coming; was piling up wood at the time; heard signal to break; saw no light on the Central train coming west; did not see the engine strike Central train; stopped at junction half an hour at the place of collision think water about 18 inches deep; conductor's name of Mich. Southern train, Wheeling; Southern train going at about 25 miles an hour.

2. Witness, Thomas Lawler; Was on the emigrant train of the Michigan Central Railroad—did not see the train until the Southern struck the Central—had a boy killed by the collision—was smothered—hip hurt and badly injured in the body—himself badly bruised, caught between the wheels.

3d Witness—Goodliss Wagner, son of the man killed, was on the Michigan Central train. Did not see the South train going East until they struck.—knew the ladies present to have belonged to the train going to Chicago—knows of nine bodies not recovered.

4th Witness,—Philip Ronty, was on board of train running to Chicago.—Testimony as above.

5th Witness—Loring Darling, Agent for South Michigan R. R. Station at Chicago depot, was at the place of collision after three o'clock. Saw said ladies after collision. Thinks he saw man dead, covered by broken cars. Most of the Southern train broken. Southern Michigan cars struck last at right angles. Knows of none from Southern train going East, killed.—Engineer's name on Southern road, Wm. Davis. Know. none of the firemen. Train was detained at junction for an hour for passengers on Rock Island cars.

The Jury heard evidence at Southern Railroad depot till noon, and then adjourned to Sherman House for the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Gray was a farmer from Vermont, who came out here to see the country, and was returning home to bring his family.

A man from Canada, wife and four children in company with Mr. Grey are all supposed to be killed.

John Williamson of Calumet, died about 1-2 past one.

7 o'clock P. M.

In the morning about 9 o'clock, a Jury was summoned, and had before them the several bodies previously mentioned. The examination of witnesses before this Jury was concluded about half past ten, and the Jury adjourned to meet at the Sherman House at two o'clock.

Soon after eight, other bodies were brought to the Southern Michigan Depot, and the coroner called a new jury, which was the same as the first jury, except that two who were on the first jury could not then be found; and thereupon the coronor called two others in the places of the absent. An examination was then entered into, in regard to the last eight bodies, and during its progress, this second jury adjourned to meet at the Sherman House at 2. P. M.

At the proper hour both Juries met at the Sherman House, and adjourned to the Court House. Here there were fourteen jurors, but on two different juries. Here a long delay ensued. The Coroner seemed to be in doubt in relation to his duty. Some outside consultation ensued, and finally the first jury was called, all of whom were present. It was then announced that the examination would proceed, commencing where it was left at the Depot.

A request was made by the agent of the Michigan Central road to have the testimony read which was taken in the morning, and seconded by H. G. Shumway, Esq.—which after some objection was granted.

The witnesses were separated, and Whiting called. I am conductor on the Southern road, on train last night; left for Toledo at precisely 9 o'clock; ten miles from Chicago ran into freight train of Central road, coming to Chicago; this happened at 15 minutes past ten; waited at junction of Rock Island road about 20 minutes, for passengers from that train; two or two and half miles from junction to place of collision; running 25 miles per hour; did not see cars before we struck them; suppose it is engineer's duty to look out; think I am acquainted with rules of my Company; don't know of rules in rela- [torn] tion to look out; when left junction began collecting fare in 2d class cars; stood at time of collision at the third seat of the car near baggage car; this was second car from engine; our car was broken all to pieces; I was not before the collision aware that a train was coming; had no information of that kind from any one; was slightly injured; I was thrown backwards and down, I crawled out; discovered that two or three of my passengers were killed; our engine ran through an emigrant car; should think 50 in 2d class car, and 200 in 1st class cars; the moon was not up at time of collision, night clear; little fog on right hand side of track; have been on road 8 years; our orders are that our trains from Chicago shall avoid all trains on the Illinois Central at the junction; the Michigan Central runs on the Ill Central road; dont know that it is duty of conductor to look out, or have some one look out at these crossings; I supposed I had Mr. Davis to look out; don't think it conductor's duty to put a man to look out at these points; engineer bound to stop at conductor's command; we had proper signal lights; no rule about ringing or whistling at railroad crossings; practice is not to ring or whistle at railroad crossings; we do at road crossings; run into M Central engine and freight train; don't know its hour of arriving, did not expect a train; knew nothing about their running time; saw only one dead person when I got out; remained 20 minutes; started to Chicago for aid; walked to junction, found a gravel engine; heard no bell ring before collision.

Stated by witness—Usually commence collecting fare immediately on leaving Chicago, but this time Rock Island train was not in, and I did not collect any fare till after leaving junction; we were 35 minutes behind time at crossing; do not usually delay so long; a large amount of baggage to Chicago; open country at the crossing; could see a train three miles if it had a good head light; can see from junction to crossing; am not acquainted with engineer, he has run three trips with me.

Edward Davis.—An Engineer on the S. M. road, was on the train last night—left Chicago at precisely 9—five or six miles to junction—usually run in about fifteen to eighteen minutes. Stopped about half an hour at junction, by order of Conductor—left junction at 10 o'clock, and by order of the Conductor, given by signal light—2 1-2 or 3 miles to crossing—Endeavored to make up for lost time—ran about as fast as I could 'till I saw sparks from chimney of locomotive on M. C.—was then about five or six times the length of our train from crossing,—not quarter of a mile—was standing at my proper place, with head out of window.—Stood on the footboard all the time after leaving junction.—Soon as I saw sparks, blew whistle to break down, and reversed my engine.—Could see by my own light that their engine was across the track, but their cars were not.—was running from 25 to 28 miles an hour.—Went right through the train.—saw many persons dead and dying; many under the ruins; picked up a little child in the water, dead; had good light, I believe the M. C. had no light in front; think I must have seen it; they may have had a light, think M. C. was running slow; my train about 180 feet long; was about twice the length of my train from crossing when I saw the cars of the M. C. by my own light.—Have been on Railroads my whole life time; never had any orders about this crossing; I believe the brakeman reversed the brakes; Engineers business to keep a lookout. Here witness produced a time table, on which was a printed rule requiring out going trains to avoid all trains on Ill. C. Road; witness stated that he did not know of this rule till this morning. Have made twelve or thirteen trips out of Chicago; never met a train here before; about 8 o'clock, drank a glass of spirits.

Mr. Tyler.—Was Conductor on the Michigan C. train that came in last night; came from Michigan City; regular time of leaving this place is 10 o'clock, A. M. left yesterday P. M. at 5 o'clock, because the train was so much behind time. Met our regular train [illegible] from the crossing at 9 o'clock 15 minutes, at the [illegible] tion of the Illinois Central and Michigan Central.—Collision took place 9 minutes before ten, Detroit time; had 24 double cars; equal to 48 single cars; a double car is 24 feet long; two cars were filled with emigrants; had about 80 passengers in all; the 7th car had passengers in it. We had a red light on rear end of cars; the head light was not up; there were two white lights on the car; the head light was not lit because it would not burn for want of wicks. Am instructed to carry a red light on rear end of cars; I have no instructions in regard to head light, suppose somebody has; my business is to deliver freight; I am Chief Officer. My duty is to regulate cars at crossings; Engineers under control of Conductor; at time of collision I was in way car; was looking out towards Chicago just before collision; stood at brake, head out of window; think moon was not up; clear night. Was looking out five minutes before collision; at first saw no light; afterwards saw light; when half a mile from crossing heard our whistle to put down brakes; whistle was just after I saw the light; thought the light was Locomotive from Chicago; brakes were put down; dont know that anything else was done, Saw the light a mile and a half off; was running 12 miles an hour when saw light, and four miles at time of collision. Our fifth car was struck, and two Emigrant cars and one freight car destroyed.—We had only two brakes; those are on the way car.

Mr. Shumway's Partner wished to call attention of witness to a printed rule, or notice, by which he was governed at crossings—which was refused, and an officer commanded him to sit down.—(This was subsequently read.)

Mr. Buckhan.—Was Engineer last night on M. C. Road; was constantly at my engine after leaving Michigan Central Junction; had a hand lantern which I set out about a mile from the crossing; am required to have a head light; my light wont burn—have not used it for two trips; told Mr. Jurat, who has charge of the shop at Michigan City, that the lamp would not burn; I saw light of S. Michigan train, when little more than half a mile from crossing. I shut off my steam, whistled down the brakes, but did not reverse the engine; thought there was no occasion; and that I could stop without doing it; if I had reversed my engine, my train would have stopped. I always run slow over a crossing, and supposed I had a right to the track.—If I had not whistled down the brakes, I should have been out of the way.

St. George's Society.—Last evening, about one hundred of the friends and members of this Society met at the City Hotel to celebrate their anniversary. According to the fraternal custom of these associations, the officers of sister societies and a goodly number of American citizens, representatives of the Press and others, were present,—all of whom seemed heartily to enjoy the festivities of the occasion. Mr. S. Adams our good host of the City Hotel, admirably performed his part towards the evening's pleasures, by providing a good, substantial, real John Bull supper,—to the merits of which all present applied themselves with a true national gusto, that did plainly show that

"Good digestion doth wait on appetite,
And health on both."

Over the festive board, Mr. N. H. Davis, President, and Mr. Kemp, Vice Prest., presided with a hearty feeling, which added much to the enjoyment of the night. The substantials being disposed of, then followed reason's feast, and the soul's flow of kind and cheering feeling. Nor was there wanting music's gentle and thrilling strains to add to the night's festivities. Frank Lombard, aided by Dr. Hadley and Dr. Hurlbut, ever and anon interspersed either fine national airs, or plaintive or comic songs,—all of which were received with great pleasure.

The President's opening address was brief, interesting and to the point. He congratulated the members of the Society on the prosperous fact that some of the oldest citizens of Chicago and America were this evening mingling their feelings and sentiments with those of the freeborn sons of happy and glorious old England; and trusted that thus it ever would be with the two great nations of the earth. After facetiously dwelling upon the history of England's patron Saint, and the general enthusiasm with wh[torn] eloquently honored, the President spoke in warm terms of the feelings of pride with which every Englishman may well think and speak of his native land. Her charitable, moral, commercial and great national institutions ever had been, and must ever remain, the wonder of the world. Next he called on the members to use their individual and collective influence to aid the struggling British emigrant in working out for himself and family a new home in a strange land, but at the same time in a great and prosperous country. During the past year, he said, the legislature had granted them a liberal charter, under the provisions of which they would be able to organize and carry on many benevolent designs. The President then gave the first toast of the evening: "The day we celebrate,"—which was received with all honor.

Then followed the Englishman's sacred toast, be he where he may, or under whatever circumstances: "The Queen—God bless her." And verily it was drank with an enthusiasm which would have done honor to a Free Trade Hall meeting, and showed clearly that whatever Americanized Englishmen may think of monarchy, they still love their honored and virtuous Queen.

Then followed in quick succession, all heartily responded to,—"Our native land, "The President of the United States. "The land of our adoption,"—all of which were interspersed with appropriate songs.

Next came "Our Sister Societies," which was responded to by Mr. O'Conor, President of the Hibernia Society, who gave,—"Napoleon the 1st;" Mr. George Anderson, President of the St. Andrews Society, who gave,—"Britons of the U. S.—If ever lost, may they be found in the embrace of national glory," and Mr. Owens, President of the St. Davids' Society, who also concluded with a toast, which we did not hear.

The President then gave "The Press," on which Henry Fowler of the Tribune, was loudly called for. After "good night, all's well," Mr. Fowler said that he had come to this gathering with a definite and earnest sentiment, and this sentiment was in harmony with the spirit of this occasion. We have met, Englishmen and Americans, to lessen the distance between us, to strengthen friendship by a cordial interchange of social feeling. This sentiment had been forcibly expressed in the address of the President. It was the sentiment that England and America were no longer antagonistic, but one in feeling and in purpose. In the great struggles between the onward progress of constitutional liberty and the allied powers of despotism, England and America, we all believe, will be found battling together for the redemption of the world. The time had gone by when bitter animosities should be cherished. There was a time when England and America fought each other, when America beat England—pardon me, said Mr. F., I forget, this is St. George's Day, (cheers) I mean when England beat—no, that will not do either—I mean, (laughter, and cries of "go on,") I mean when England and America went at it together, and came off with the distinct notion that each was quite as stout as the other—(cheers.) Now, there should be no rivalship but in the acts of peace, in manufactures, in ship-building, and in all that goes to strengthen the foundations of constitutional liberty. Mr. Fowler closed with the following sentiment: "England and America. Like true knights, now that they have tested each other's metal and proved it good, they join hands and swear eternal friendship."

Mr. Bross, editor of the Democratic Press, in answer to a hearty call, also responded, and in a happy speech much interested the meeting.—The topics of his address were the power of the Press, the elevated position which England occupied among the nations of the earth, of the pride with which an Englishman may well think of the literature, the language, the laws and religion of his native land. Mr. Bross concluded a very interesting address by presenting as a toast, "The Members of St. George's Society in Chicago—Worthy Sons of 'Merrie England,' who have left their country for our country's good."

Mr. Dutch, editor of the Advertiser, also [illegible] the call of the meeting, responded to the toast, and gave, "The English in Chicago, we welcome them to our city."

The President gave, "The Bar," which was responded to by Mr. Windet and Mr. Ballingall, the former of whom spoke at some length on the important position the Bar occupies in society.

Then came the last regular toast, given by the President, "Woman"—which was received with a hearty response.

Then followed the usual miscellaneous toasts, many of which were responded to.

Dr. Dyer, J. A. Marshall, the late President of the Society, the Vice President and several other gentlemen addressed the meeting.

The festivities were kept up to a late hour, when all separated, evidently well pleased with the night's enjoyment.

For the Tribune.

Juvenile Crime—"Something must be done."

Yes, says the man whose lead pipe had been cut and stolen, and who had traced it to the receiver of stolen goods; something must be done—these boys, d——n them, must be hung. Yes, says the man who last Sabbath had a whole barrel of eggs stolen by the hands full and by hats full; they ought to be hung—something must be done. They came to his barrel of eggs, as the writer saw in person, as he had seen a swarm of bees passing from their hives to a new found treasure of sweets—they came empty and went loaded away, and were easily tracked to their hives by the broken eggs. He, too, confirmed the sentence, perhaps cursed the thieves, and says: They ought to be hung.

But there is another class of injured ones, and what if they are but a little band! we will hear their complaint. See them on the day of rest, followed by their children. They are on their way to the House of Refuge. They see children fighting; others stoning each other; all "swearing like troopers." They hurry on, and their way is obstructed by crowds of boys playing marbles, every other word is an oath. A little further, and they pass boys of a larger growth playing ball. These parents, too, say: Something must be done; but it is more in sorrow than in anger. Thus passes Sabbath after Sabbath, year after year, and nothing is done.—These idle Sabbath breakers turn up petty thieves; they rob vessels; enter dwellings as beggars, and often go out richer, in their own estimation, with one of your silver spoons in their basket, beneath the pile of cold victuales and bits of bread, your ill-judged kindness had given them. We next hear of them before the Grand Jury, then in the court room, then that they are boarding in Bridewell or at Alton, at the city expense, and who is guiltless?

Do our City Fathers want the influence of the lawless at the poll that nothing is done!—Perish the thought. Does the Christian parent love his ease so well?—lulled is he by the syren song of "peace, peace," dropping perchance a tear, but does nothing to arrest the evil? The cushioned chair of the one will ere long be filled with thorns, and the "downy pillow" of the other wet with tears of remorse and agony over lost children, unless something is done, and that speedily.

Let but a maimed dog bite a beggar child within our city limits, and in an hour every print in the city bulletins the stirring fact. His Honor the Mayor, with commendable zeal issues his proclamation. The whole company of the "Star Police," with hue and cry, poisoned sausage, and loaded guns, scour the streets by night and by day, and woe to the unmuzzled, pet or mastiff, hound or setter they meet—and it is well—but when 25 men in the performance of their sworn duty, tell our citizens of a series of evils of a far more dangerous character, is it all to end in—something must be done!

What that "something" should be, an humble individual, standing on his right as a freeman and a tax-payer, will venture to propose, even if laughed to scorn for his boldness.

And 1st, That which is to be done is not to drive the Bible from our common schools. Let that iniquity of iniquity be accomplished, and the crime of which we complain to-day will in five short years be looked upon as angel deeds in comparison with the d[torn] and damnable developments, which the absence of the Bible would bring out of the human heart, into the broad sunlight of every day human life. God forbid that day of darkness should ever come. It is a predicted day. He who sees it will see the holy tie of marriage dissolved. His ear will hear the last fall of the requiem bell of freedom and will see the National Monument at Washington and Bunker Hill rased to their foundation, by an infidel mob. I mean to say emphatically, that every superstructure, national or personal, that is not erected on the foundation of the Bible, will miserably perish. But, "something must be done"—yes! Let the Bible have "free course"—let every proper influence be brought to bear upon every child in our city, in the early training of that child in its holy precepts.

What has made us what we are?—The Bible! What will make America the centre, from whence shall radiate laws, and light, and love, monetary, social, political, to Europe—to the wide, wide world?—The Bible!

2d. On this basis individual responsibility should be felt and acted upon. Children should not be permitted to be in the streets after dark. Our worthy Mayor and his associates should "pull together," and be "a terror to evil doers,"—a strong team in a strong harness. 1st. In the faithful execution of present State and municipal law, in relation to the observance of the Sabbath. 2d. In the passage of all proper and constitutional ordinances, to abolish or restrain those pests to morality and fair legitimate trade,—pawn brokers and evening mock auctions. 3d. An efficient prohibitory ordinance against the purchase of any articles from children. Children will not steal articles of lead, copper, iron, tools or rope, if they cannot sell them.

These poor children must be punished in a way that will do them good, and that will afford some reasonable hope of permanent reformation. All admit that present means are not wisely adapted to this end.

The Bridewell and the Penitentiary are not schools of reform, but schools of crime. The spark of love yet lives in the heart of these little pitiable ones. Let it be fanned to a flame by giving them healthful, honorable occupation upon a "Refuge Farm." Let half their time be spent in school and half in labor,—in all let them be treated with kindness, and crime will decrease—virtue and gratitude increase.

The Reason Why.

Perhaps our esteemed democratic friends may gain some light in regard to a Chicago appointment, by reading the following paragraph from a letter in the Buffalo Commercial:

Now it happens very singularly, but still most unmistakeably, that all the factions and "isms" that were down in 1852, are up in 1853. Not to go out of the Empire State for illustrations, where are the fogies, the conservatives, the hunkers, the hards of New York, who ruled her politics two years ago? They are prostrate in the dust. They are prostrate not only in Albany, but at Washington. Here Gen. Pierce has declared that he intends to treat the factions of the N. Y. democracy with equal favor, but every movement and every important appointment tends to strip the hunkers of all power. At Albany it is as plain as the sun in the zenith, that the barnburners have got their late enemies and masters, the hunkers, on the hip, and are determined to make the most vigorous use of their victory. They design first to punish, and then to annihilate. We shall see whether they have the pluck and the skill to carry out this design. At present things wear an appearance decidedly favorable to the barnburners, and disastrous for their adversaries.

American Railroads.

The Albany Eve. Journal says that the Railroads of New York will be in a year or two—if indeed they are not now—better managed than any others of the same extent in the whole world.

Their Express trains averaging a regular speed of 45 miles to the hour—their sentries, two to every mile post—spacious comfortable cars—their "compound rail"—their through system of signals and connected supervision and management—have no parallel on the continent, and are not excelled even in Great Britain.

And much as we complain of the frequency of accidents, the Report of the State Engineer shows that last year, not a single passenger on them all was killed who kept his seat.

Important from New Mexico—Reported Attempts to Seize New Territory—Resistance of the Mexicans.

New Orleans, Wednesday, April 20.

The Picayune has received late and highly important intelligence from New Mexico. The accounts state that Governor Lane has issued a proclamation claiming Mesilla Valley as a portion of the American Territory. The Governor asserts that this valley was left out by the neglect of Commissioner Bartlett, and he had therefore given orders to Col. Sumner, to proceed to the spot with an armed force and secure it.

Col. Sumner, however, it is stated, refused to obey his instructions. In the mean time, the Mexican authorities received notice of what was on foot, and immediately sent a body of several hundred soldiers, who were commanded to resist at any sacrifice, all attempts to seize the valley, which the Government of Mexico looks upon as a portion of its own possessions.

When the above account left, the most intense excitement prevailed, and bloody work was anticipated.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Let every good citizen who ever expects to make a journey, or has a friend who may, be at the City Hall to-night.

Late last evening Mr. McElroy had an interview with the Jury, after which they separated to meet again this morning at 9 o'clock.

The city was in a state of feverish excitement during the whole of yesterday. The news of the collision began to be known before morning, and at an early hour pervaded the city. The Tribune establishment was open all night, and before sunrise the demand began for our Extras, containing a particular account of the collision. By half past seven the rush for them was unparalleled. The greatest anxiety was depicted on the faces of many who came to our counter, persons who had friends on board, and yet the expression was a poor index of the agony of apprehension. In most cases they were relieved by reading the full account. During the day crowds visited the depots and went down to the crossing. We issued several Extras during the day, and our Bulletin Boards were surrounded by eager readers.

Deserved.—We cannot forbear expressing our gratitude in this public way to an old friend, Edmond West, Esq., of Elyria, Ohio, for his invaluable assistance night before last in securing the particulars concerning the collision. He was in the Express train going East. He returned with us at 3 o'clock in the morning. Our citizens are much indebted to his quiet energy and accurate observation.

The Concert.—The enthusiasm of the Concert of last evening exceeded that of all the others. The artists were encored and called out again and again, and in most eloquent strains of clappings, stampings and shoutings. It was certainly one continued feast of good things. Madame Strakosch never looked more beautiful, (we must say it,) nor ever poured forth sweeter sounds. The roundness, power and beauty of her voice, and her pure taste, give her a most enviable rank among artistes. It is with great pleasure that our citizens will hear that she is to sing once more, and that another concert will be given next Monday evening, for charitable purposes. To-morrow the Company go to Milwaukee.

On Hand.—There was a report yesterday that the Engineer of the Southern train had cleared out. It seems not, as he was on hand to testify before the Jury.

Zinc Paint.—In an another column will be found the card of the Agent of the New Jersey Zinc Company, setting forth the merits of Zinc Paint. The adoption of zinc in the place of lead for sanatary and other reasons, by the French Government, and the manufacture of a still cheaper and better article than the French in this country, with its rapidly increasing use, renders this subject worthy the attention of all paint-workers and consumers. The advantages claimed for zinc over lead, are its greater cheapness, commercially speaking, white zinc covering (equal quantity), from one third to one half more surface than lead; its superior whiteness, brilliancy and durability, the zinc resisting the discolorations and corrosions made on lead by coal and sulphur gases, bilge water, &c.; its entire freedom from those poisons which in lead, generate several dangerous diseases well known to workers in lead, lead-painters, tenants of freshly lead painted rooms, and medical men.

Sleeping rooms freshly painted with zinc, may be tenanted with impunity, while medical men agree that lead painted rooms cannot be occupied under two or three months without peril. The white zinc, as an inside paint, has all the polish and beauty of a porcelain surface, and will retain its brilliant whiteness for years. The zinc colors (brown and brown-stone color) requiring but little oil, dry suddenly, forming a metallic coating on wood, brick, iron, &c., impervious to weather and salt-water, and nearer fire-proof than any other paint known. For ships, steamers, out buildings, roofs, foundries railway depots, cars, engines, &c., they are unrivalled. The zinc paint acts galvanically on metal surfaces. The use of zinc paint is as simple and easy, and in fact, the same as the use of lead. Health, beauty and profit, alike commends it Alarm of Fire last evening, was occasioned by the burning of the premises belonging to Mr. Winbolt Upholsterer, Randolph street, situated on the alley between Clark and Dearborn street. A large quantity of hair and material for mattress making was consumed—no fire had been near the place all day and it must have been set on fire by an incendiary.

Harper for May.—Just laid on our table by A. H. & C. Burley. We do not see any objection to this number, indeed Harper's is a respectable monthly.

A Church of the Baptist faith and order was organized on Monday evening, the 25th inst., in Mrs. Balme's School Room, South Clark street, when the Rev. Mr. Kenyon gave an impressive and excellent address on the occasion. Elder Balme, the pastor, will administer the ordinance of the Lord's Supper to the infant Church, at the close of the afternoon service next Lord's Day, in the District School House, corner of Clark and Harrison streets.

The attention of our Water Board and Citizens is called to the advertisement of Mr. Bartholomew in our paper of to-day. He has for some years furnished the city of New York with his improved, hydrants and cocks, and which will be seen by the certificate of the President of the Croton Water Board, is preferred above any other kind. The necessity of our Board adopting the best hydrant known is obvious. These hydrants being always left shut will save a vast quantity of water, and tend to obviate that great evil so much complained of in New York, "Waste of Water" to say nothing of the loss of steam power in elevating it. We like the idea of a hydrant that can be repaired without disturbing the flagging or digging up our yards or grass plots. The Detroit Water Board have adopted the use of these hydrants. His self acting cocks are in extensive use in New York, Philadelphia, Buffalo and St. Louis. The plumbers and house owners are finding out that by using them, a cheaper and better job can be accomplished than in the old way. We hope our friends will reap the fruits of the improvements of our down east friends.

The Galena Mining Country Healthy and Fertile.—There is no part of the United States in which the bills of mortality show a less amount of fatal disease, than in this and a few adjoining counties. Many parts of the West are cursed with annual visitations of Ague and Billious Fevers not in themselves dangerous, but which makes existence a burden and a bore. From all such unwelcome guests, the mines are almost wholly exempt. At the same time, the more fearful scourge of New England—consumption—is not indigenous. All cases are imported. The surface of the country, though rolling and broken, is well adapted to agriculture. No production of the soil cultivated in this latitude refuses to grow. Wheat yields more abundantly than in any other part of Illinois, and corn is a certain crop. Stock raising may be pursued profitably, as our valleys are particularly adapted to grass.—Galena Jeffersonian.

The Crystal Palace

Rufus King is writing to his paper, the Milwaukee Sentinel says:

The first question almost every body asks, on coming to New York this Spring, is, when will the Crystal Palace open. I asked this question yesterday where I made sure of getting a reliable answer; to-wit, at the office of the Company who manage the Exhibition. That answer was, not before the first of June; and a view of the Palace confirmed it. Although the frame work is all up—the skeleton, as it were, of this Mammoth Museum—and a portion of the glass already set, there remains a vast deal of work to be done. The Contractors and the Company are urging the work along with great vigor, and hundreds of men are daily employed upon the building, but an army of laborers could not finish it short of three or four weeks yet. My own belief is, that the Exhibition will hardly be open before the middle of June, and that the best time to visit the Palace will be the months of September, October and November. When opened, the Exhibition cannot fail to prove most attractive and interesting. It is already quite certain that the entire space will be occupied—indeed the Company might have filled double the space—with articles for exhibition and subsequent sale. The Old World will contribute its full quota; every packet arriving about this time bringing packages of various goods for the Palace.

Michigan Central R. R.—Large Trains.

The freight train from Cleveland to Columbia, on Monday morning, was composed of seventy cars driven by three locomotives,—Free Press.

The Free Press need not have gone to the State of Ohio to find a large train of freight cars. On Wednesday last there started from this goodly city of Detroit a train of eighty-five freight cars in one string, propelled by two of the most powerful locomotives in the country. This train was bound for Chicago, and the greater part of its vast load of merchandize was carried to the merchants of that thriving village. Since the first of April just such trains have started almost daily from the depot of the Central Railroad for the same place.

On Thursday evening the Free Press might have seen a passenger train leave the depot for the west composed of 29 of the splendid new passenger and luggage cars, of this company, containing nearly 900 passengers and almost one-quarter of a mile long. To get up notices of large trains and extensive railroad business, we need not go out of our own city.—Detroit Adv.

Reasonable.—A man complaining that he could not sleep one night, summed up the causes: A wailing baby of seventeen days—dog howling under the window—cat fight in the alley—a colored ball in the shanty over the way—toothache—and a pig trying to get in at the back door.

A Consistent Sectarian.—A melting sermon being preached in a country church, all the congregation fell to weeping, except one man, who begged to be excused, as he belonged to another church!

Definition of Circumstances.—Said Dinah to Sambo, as they were taking a loving promenade:
"Sambo, what your pinion 'bout de married life? Tink it be de most happiest?"
"Well, I'll tell you 'bout,—dat are 'pend altogether how dey enjoy demself."

CHICAGO MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, Monday Evening, April 25—7 P. M.

To-day there has been more life manifested on Water street than at any other time during the season. Receipts from canal have been larger within the last twenty-four hours than during any other similar period since the canal was opened; and the free arrivals of vessels from below appears to have stimulated produce dealers into action.

We note sales, and the state of the market, as follows:

WHEAT.—No sales. The only inquiry is for milling. Fair to good spring would command 65@67c, and fair to prime winter, 75@80c.

CORN.—Sales of 4,000 bu afloat, from river, at 44c; 3000 do. do do at same; 4000 do do do at same; 5000 bu pure yellow, on board, at 44½c; 3,300 bu, heated, to distillers, at 37½c; 2000 do do, to do, at 38, and 1000 do do, to do, at 39c; also, 36,000 bu, at Beardstown and Naples, on private terms. The market closes very firm at 44c for good lots from river, afloat.

OATS.—Sale of 150 bu at the depot, for retail trade, at 27½c ₩ bu; 1500 bu afloat, to livery stable, at 27½c; 1000 bu afloat at 33; 5000 do on board, at 30c, and a full cargo for vessel to arrive—say 15,000, at 30c, free on board. There are about 4500 bu at the depot, which is being closed off in small lots, for retail, at 27½c.

BARLEY.—Sale of 280 bu, a fair lot, afloat, at 50c. Good lots wanted at 50@55c ₩ bu.

RYE.—None offering, and rates are nominally 50@55c ₩ 60 lbs.

SEEDS.—None offering and rates nominal.

In Provisions there is no change. Trade moderate and limited to local trade. Grocery trade active.

FREIGHTS.—The only charters we hear of are the propeller Ecl.., at 85 ₩ ton for Provisions to Buffalo, and the Ogdensburgh, which takes flour to New York, via Ogdensburgh and lake Champlain, at 90c ₩ bbl.

WORMS! WORMS!

Various theories have been started relative to the origin of intestinal worms, and yet the question is still a vexed one among medical authorities. Of one fact, however, all are informed, and in which all agree—the fatal nature of the influence they exert on children. At this season of the year the attacks of worms are most frequent as well as most dangerous. We take great pleasure in directing the attention of parents to the Vermifuge of Dr. M'Lane. It is one of the most extraordinary medicines ever introduced to the public, and has never failed of success when tried. For sale by Druggists of Chicago, and by Country Merchants.

Ancient Mines on Lake Superior.

The Lake Superior region of America is richer than any other region of the world in copper. It is not many years since their rich seams of copper were discovered, and with our knowledge of the Indian's character and our entire ignorance of the history of the past, in respect to the inhabitants of northern America, it was supposed that our modern discoveries of these minerals were the best ever made by mortal man. The huge mounds scattered over our country have left traces behind them of a race long since passed away; but in a more striking manner have evidence of that race been recently brought to light in the discovery of ancient mines, tools, &c., in the Lake Superior region.—

In 1848 the first of these old mines was discovered, and in it was found a mass of pure copper weighing six tons, which had been raised by ancient wedges and rolled along the gallery. These ancient mines extended over a tract of country 100 miles long, running from N. E. to S. W. A great number of ancient tools have been found. They all consist of hard stones, with single and double grooves for the receptions of handles like those now employed by blacksmiths for holding their wedges. The marks of old fires extended everywhere, showing that they employed heat in their mining operations—by heating the rock first, then cooling it quickly with water to soften it—the plan for softening copper. When did those ancient miners work these mines, and who were they? Trees of hundreds of years' standing extend their roots on the surface of a soil, which has required ages to accumulate, over some of their deepest works.—We have no evidence of whose those mines were, except by the tools which have been left behind them; but at one time they must have been numerous, but quite a number of their old excavations have been opened up.—Scientific American.

PROPOSED LAW AGAINST SPIRITUAL RAPPINGS IN THE GENERAL COURT.—In the Massachusetts House of Representatives, an order has been submitted directing the Committee on Education to inquire into the expediency of providing legal restraint against the mischief now perpetrated by the "Spiritual Rappings."

TEXAS GOLD DISCOVERIES—EXCITEMENT.—A dispatch from New Orleans says:—The Picayune has received intelligence from Texas, which it is alledged, confirms the previous reports received of discoveries of gold on the Upper Colorado river, and also above Austin.

Large amounts had already been collected by those who had proceeded to the "diggins" and great excitement prevailed throughout Texas.

IMPRISONMENT OF COLORED SEAMEN.—We learn from the Charleston Mercury that the United States District Court in that city is about to try the validity of the laws of South Carolina requiring the imprisonment of colored seamen. An action has been brought against the sheriff of Charleston, at the instance of the British consul to recover $4000 damages for the alledged false imprisonment of Manuel Perira, a colored British subject.

LARGE VERDICT.—When the disastrous collision on the Hudson River Railroad happened, in December, 1851, Mr. John S. Clapp, of Columbia county was a passenger, and had a leg broken and was otherwise injured. He sued the company, and the trial was brought to a close a few days since, at Hudson. The jury after an absence of an hour and a half, returned a verdict for the plaintiff of $6,000.

REASONABLE.—A man complaining that he could not sleep one night, summed up the causes: A wailing baby of seventeen days—dog howling under the window—cat fight in the alley—a colored ball in the shanty over the way—toothache—and a pig trying to get in at the back door.

A CONSISTENT SECTARIAN.—A melting sermon being preached in a country church, all the congregation fell to weeping, except one man, who begged to be excused, as he belonged to another church!

DEPENDING ON CIRCUMSTANCES.—Said Dinah to Sambo, as they were taking a loving promenade:

"Sambo, what your 'pinion 'bout de married life? Tink it be de most happiest?"

"Well, I'll tell you 'bout,—'dat are 'pend altogether how dey enjoy demself."

SEWING MACHINE.

SINGER'S PATENT

STRAIGHT NEEDLE PERPENDICULAR ACTION.

SEWING MACHINE.

Secured in the United States by two Distinct Patents.

THE FIRST granted August 12, 1851, the second April 13, 1852. The only machine privileged to use a straight needle. Within a short time it has been awarded seven gold and silver medals, at Fairs, in different States. In less than two years the great reputation of this labor-saving machine has been established in this country and in Europe. What spinning machinery is to the old spinning wheel, Singer's Sewing Machine is to the ordinary process of sewing. It has already triumphed over inveterate prejudices arising from the sale of imperfect and worthless machines. It sews every variety of materials, coarse or fine cloth or leather, with marvellous rapidity, and surpassing strength and beauty, performing the work of from ten to twenty persons. ... This machine is compact, ornamental, durable, and is easily adjusted and operated. Full printed directions for its use are furnished with each machine. The price, with all apparatus complete, is $125.

Either of the Express Companies or Merchants visiting New York to buy goods, furnish a convenient medium to procure machines; and as Singer & Co. pack them to carry in perfect order, buyers may rely on receiving a machine perfect and complete, being set at their place as directed.

The attention of SHIRT AND COLLAR MANUFACTURERS is particularly called to these machines. They stitch linen perfectly, which no other machines can.

Machine Needles, Silk Twist on Spools, Linen Thread, &c., manufactured for these machines expressly, always on hand and for sale. Black Silk, $7 ₩ lb.; Colored, $7.50.

These admirable machines, and finished specimens of their work, may at all times be freely examined, at either of our

LOCK HOSPITAL.

No. 150 Washington Street.

THE ONLY CERTAIN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF Secret Diseases at 150 Washington street. By the strict system established at the Lock Hospital, 150 Washington-st., all patients are secure of absolute privacy. The advantages of this system are too well known to need any comment. All who have any need of advice or attention from Dr. D., may confide in him with a full assurance of secrecy and certain hope of recovery. Some of the most learned and famous men in the country have been under his charge—men of genius, intellect and power—and in no instance has the strictness of privacy been violated.

Invalids must be cautioned against the illiterate and unlearned in science, who do so much injury by quackery and imposition. The Vegetable Medicines of Dr. D. are a new scientifically established, as the only certain remedy for Venerial complaints, and those who are afflicted with such complaints are seriously warned not to tamper with them, by trusting those who practice the abuse of mercury or balsam.

Dr. D. freely invites all troubled with disorders to call upon him. His charges are regulated by the circumstances of the case. No charge will be made where a cure is not effected. Dr. D. is a regular physician, having devoted many years to the exclusive study of these diseases, comprising, in their various shades, Gonorrhea, Syphilis, Impotency, Strictures, Gleet, Scrofula, diseases of the bones, &c. Nothing is needed but to call upon him, to make everything satisfactory in a moment. Such is the absolute efficacy of the method of his cure, that no question can possibly exist about it, when once an individual becomes acquainted with the wholesome and certain process. It is but for a man to say he is afflicted, and ...

The greatest point for the consideration of everybody is, to avoid all communication with persons unqualified to give them relief. Serious and dangerous consequences ensue more than the world is aware of, from the treatment of quacks and impostors.

The only certain way is to visit the Lock Hospital, or Dr. D's office, at No. 150 Washington street, and at once place yourself under his care.

Office will be kept open from 8 A. M. until 10 P. M.

All letters (post-paid) will receive prompt attention. Any person wishing a private room, as floored, can have it by applying to Dr. D.

WISTAR'S

Balsam of Wild Cherry,

The Great Remedy for Consumption.

And the Best Medicine Known to Man

Asthma of every stage, Liver Complaints, Bronchitis, Influenza, Coughs, Colds, Bleeding of the Lungs, Shortness of Breath, Pains and Weakness in the Side, Breast, &c., and all other Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

... very important disease over which this Balsam" exerts a very powerful influence, is that of a

DISEASED LIVER.

In this complaint it has undoubtedly proved more efficacious than any remedy hitherto employed, and in numerous instances, when patients had endured long and severe suffering from the disease, without receiving the least benefit from various remedies, and when Mercury has been resorted to in vain, the use of this Balsam has restored the Liver to a healthy action; and in many instances effected permanent cures after every known remedy had failed to produce this desired effect.

Besides its astonishing efficacy in the diseases above mentioned, we also find it a very effectual remedy in Asthma, a complaint in which it has been very extensively used, with decided success, even in cases of years' standing.

READ THE FOLLOWING.

We are just in receipt of the following voluntary tribute to the curative power of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, from E. Hall, M. D., of Mt. Clemens, Michigan, who is a physician of high standing, and an extensive druggist.

MT. CLEMENS, Michigan, Oct. 26, 1848.

To all the afflicted this may certify that Mrs. R. Roberts, of this village, three or four weeks after confinement, was attacked with a violent cough and great prostration, and soon was brought to the verge of the grave, and I advised her to use Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—she did so, and with the blessing of Providence, she is now a living proof of the value of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

E. HALL, Physician and Druggist.

Read and be convinced of the remarkable virtues of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Messrs. SANFORD & PARK—Gents: As a matter of justice to you, and for the benefit of the public, I would offer the following statement of a case cured by your medicine, known as Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. In the spring of 1847, my wife was severely attacked with peripneumonia, or pleurisy, which resulted in a most severe cough, and she was accompanied with a severe cough. She was attended by some of the best physicians in Chicago, but to no purpose; for nothing they could give, could stop the cough. ... I procured one bottle, and commenced using it according to directions; before it was all gone the cough stopped, the pain in the side left her, and with the aid of another bottle, she was restored to perfect health. In consideration of these circumstances, I would recommend it to the public as a valuable medicine.

Yours, Respectfully, R. N. GARRATT.

HEAR THE PRESS!

From the Fall River (Mass.) Monitor.

"This medicine, prepared by a long experienced and skillful physician, tested and approved by a great number of intelligent, distinguished and respectable persons in various parts of the country, is now ... and used with entire confidence; and it is also recommended as a valuable medicine for other diseases, such as colds, coughs, and particularly those affections of the lungs which ... to consumption.

From the Boston Mercantile Journal.

"This medicine, coming from a respectable source, and carefully prepared by an experienced and skillful physician, is sanctioned by the public with confidence. Its efficacy has been proved in many obstinate cases of disease, and its fame is extending. It is used in many hospitals, and in private practice, and by the public generally, throughout the Middle and Northern States, and strong testimony from intelligent and highly respectable persons in favor of its merits as a remedy for colds and coughs, affections of the chest, dis...

From the Cincinnati Daily Times.

"We would advise those of our readers who are laboring under an affection of the lungs to make immediate trial of this truly excellent medicine. The most respectable and intelligent families of our city have used it, and it is a favorite medicine; and persons predisposed to consumption, who have used it, speak in the highest terms of its efficacy."

REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR THE

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE.

By Speed's Line.

New Orleans, April 23.

The steamer U. States left Aspinwall on the P. M. of the 18th. She brings advices from San Francisco to April first, having connected with the Independent steamship Cortes, belonging to Davis & Brooks' N. Y. lines.

Our advices from the isthmus and Panama are to the 1st inst. News of no special interest.

There were but few passengers at Aspinwall waiting transit to the States.

The passengers rescued from the wreck of the Independence, amounting to above 400, had all arrived at San Francisco—many of them in the most distressed condition. Up to the departure of the Cortes, it was ascertained that of the passengers who were on board the Independence, 115 were lost. Fourteen of the crew of the steamer are also supposed to have been lost, as nothing was seen of them after the destruction of the ship.

The steamer Page, running between Sacramento and San Francisco, exploded her boiler on the Sacramento river, killing four passengers, and seriously wounding several others.

The loss by the overflow at Marysville was very great.

The steamship Tennessee is reported wrecked off San Francisco. She has been abandoned, and was fast going to pieces.

The Legislature, beyond the passing of a bill imposing a tax on foreign miners, done but little business. A resolution was offered on the 25th, proposing an adjournment sine die on the 15th April, which passed both houses.

The passage of the foreign miners tax bill was received with great rejoicing by the native miners.

New York, April 25.

A Washington correspondent of the Courier & Enquirer learned last evening by telegraph, that the following appointments had been agreed upon, to take effect on the 9th of July.

Ex-Governor Truesdell, of Tenn., as Minister to Russia; Ex-Governor Wood of Ohio, Minister to Brazil; Mr. Wise, or Mr. K. Mead, of Virginia, to Chili; John A. Dix to France; Hon. Mr. Appleton, of Maine, Secretary of Legation to London; Mr. Helm, of Kentucky, will receive the Governorship of New Mexico.

Washington, April 25.

The Freeman's Bank of this city has closed its doors, leaving only 100 dollars in its vaults for the payment of its notes.

President Pierce has offered to continue the present Collector of Oswego, Mr. Richardson, Silver Gray, but he had declined.

New York, April 25.

The inhabitants living on the frontier of Sonora were making preparations for emigrating to Leus, near the junction of the Colorado.

From Lower California the accounts are far from cheering, as anarchy and rebellion reign to a fearful extent.

The propeller Pioneer, wrecked some months since, had been abandoned.

Advices from the Sandwich Islands are one week later.

RHEUMATISM AND GOUT.—Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are a most extraordinary medicine for the cure of Rheumatism and Gout, because they not only cleanse the stomach and bowels of those morbid humors which, if taken into the circulation and thrown upon the membrane and muscle, are the cause of the above painful maladies; but they excite the absorbent vessels to take up that which is already deposited, and therefore are absolutely certain to make a perfect cure of Rheumatism and Gout. A single twenty-five cent box of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills will often give the most astonishing relief; and perseverance according to directions will be certain to drive pain of every description from the body.

The Telegraph.

In yesterdays Tribune we published an editorial from the St. Louis Republican on Telegraphs. In a later number of that paper we find the following reply.

COL. CHAMBERS: In your paper of yesterday, with a certain stricture appeared upon the present system of Telegraph reporting.

Now there is not the least objection in the world to your employing this "season of repose," these "piping times of peace," in firing lazy broadsides at the Telegraph Reports. It can't do any harm, and may do some good. And it is all very well to invite other journals to take a hand or two also. But why, in the name of good sense, will you kill off your best friends, in the first shot, as you have done? You seize a true patriot, put a red coat upon him against his will, and then shoot him down as a Britisher! Such conduct don't help the cause at all.

Be assured that the Telegraph lines, their officers and agents, Mr. Kain, whom you name above, and all others, will join you most heartily in your work of reform, and prove your best auxiliaries too, unless you choose to consider them as enemies, and keep your artillery leveled at them.

You know, or ought to know that newspaper reporting has always been an Eastern monopoly. That it has been controlled entirely by the public press at Pittsburg and Cincinnati, who combined to [illegible] both the Telegraph lines, and the Western press, into their arrangements. This monopoly has overrode the remonstrances of the lines, and compelled them to be the carriers of such miserable stuff, as often to lead them to the verge of refusing to transmit reports altogether.

To the ignorance or narrowness of our own brethren at the East, and their willingness to become the subservient too's of a monopoly, are you indebted for the Telegraph favors which grace your columns every morning.

And there never has been a time that the Eastern newspaper press, had they so willed it, might not have secured for themselves and you, an elevated, high-toned and noble system of Reports, which would have been an honor to the country, and to the Telegraph, instead of a shame and a disgrace.

The maxim of the Telegraph lines has been [illegible] Have sought to do with [illegible] "Like a good pack-horse, they would prefer to carry whatever burden is laid upon them, and never look into the panniers to see whether the loading is fruit or forage, dirt or [illegible]. TELEGRAPH.

Advices from Martinique and Guadaloupe are to 13th ult. At that date the Islands were healthy.

Preparations continue for the inauguration of Napoleon's tomb, on the 5th May. M. Thibault, Bishop of Montpelier, one of the most eminent orators of the French Church, is selected to deliver the oration.

News arrived in Paris on Wednesday, of the escape from the prison of Bellisle of the famous Blanqui, accompanied by another prisoner, whose name has not transpired. Blanqui was subsequently recaptured by some peasants, and given up to the authorities.

TURKEY.—Advices from Montenegro state, that though Omer Pacha has evacuted the Montenegrin territory, he has taken up a strong position on the frontier, where he is reinforcing his army.

The Austrian embassy at Constantinople has presented a fresh note, complaining of bad treatment suffered by the christians of Dalmatia.—The Divan has promised a strict inquiry.

There is news from Servia of an alarming character. The Servians are represented to be arming silently, while the Turks are fortifying Belgrade.

A despatch of 28th ult., received at Paris from Constantinople, announces that Prince Menschikoff had submitted a draft of a convention. He had received satisfactory assurance from the Vizier, and the Russian army had been ordered to retire from the Turkish frontier. From Trieste of the 6th inst., it is stated that the French fleet had been seen off Cape Matapan.

GERMANY.—Discoveries made by the police in their arrests at Berlin prove that the conspiracy was in close alliance with the Italian one of which the unsuccessful outbreak at Milan was the manifestation. Kinkel is deeply mixed up in the Berlin affair. Dr. Frankenthal and Dr. Ladendorf are the two persons of most note arrested.

The King of Prussia has offered the Madiai an asylum in his country, but it is thought they will prefer proceeding to England.

ITALY.—Naples letters of 27th ult., report society to be in a very feverish state, although no actual outbreak had occurred. Large numbers of persons are being quietly expatriated. The prisons are full, and yet arrests continue. The "insurrection at Palermo," so reported via Genoa, appears to have been merely a small affray in which a soldier was stabbed, although the police pretended they had discovered in it a plot to assassinate the viceroy. At all events, some men were shot by the way of expiation.

Letters from Rome of the 21st ult., announce that on the preceding day a treaty was signed by the Papal government with the house of Rothschild, Brothers for a loan of 20,000,000f.

HUNGARY.—Eight persons were shot at Czongrad in Hungary on 19th ult, for drinking with three notorious robbers,—call them guerillas,—instead of informing against them. A ninth person was shot at the same place for abetting the escape of another "robber," by giving a false name to the gendarmerie.

ENGLAND.—The Chancellor of the Exchequer's proposed measure for the reduction of the national debt excited much attention in financial circles. The details of the plan were submitted to the House on the night of the 8th.

The following is an abstract.

"South Sea Stock, South Sea Annuities, and the three per cent. Annuities of 1726 and 1751, are to be compulsorily redeemed.

"Holders of the above stocks, by giving notice on or before the 6th of May, 1853, may receive for every £100 stock either

"£82 10s. Three and-a-Half per Cent. Stock, not redeemable before 5th January, 1894, an arrangement by which the nation will pay an interest of £2 17s. 6d. per cent. per annum for forty years, and will further have reduced the capital of its debt at the end of that period by £17 10s. per cent.;

"Or, £101 Two-and-a Half per cent. Stock, also not redeemable before the 5th of January, 1894, an offer which gives the holder of the stocks proposed to be redeemed an annual interest of 2½ per cent; for forty years, the nation finding itself saddled at the end of that period with an increase of 10 per cent. in the nominal amount of its debt, an increase, be it marked, exactly equivalent to the nation's saving interest during the 40 years.

"Or £100 Exchequer Bond bearing 2¾ per cent. annual interest for a few years, not longer than ten, and then bearing 2½ per cent. till 1894, coupons attached, with interest payable to bearer half-yearly, and with the option of redeeming the bonds in 1894 to rest with the government, or with the bondholder, as may be agreed to at the time of issue. This is by far the simplest and most natural arrangement.

"After the 5th of January, 1854, the interest on the above-named 3 per cent. stocks proposed to be compulsorily reduced shall cease, and parties not acceding to the government proposal shall be paid off.

"Holders of Consols or reduced may also convert their stock on giving notice by the 10th of October, 1853, into either of the new stocks or Exchequer Bonds on the same terms.

"No limit is apparently fixed to the issue of the new stocks, but the amount of the new Exchequer Bonds shall not exceed 20 millions sterling.

"Trustees converting stock are to be indemnified.

WHEAT CROP.—We hear from different parts of this county, that the wheat crop looks promising. The recent rains have been of decided advantage to it.—Galena Advertiser, 22nd.

OLE BULL'S PROJECT.—Our readers are all aware of the philanthropic scheme which the distinguished Norwegian is endeavoring to carry out in the neighboring county of Potter. We had supposed that his plan was limited to settling his countrymen there, with advantages equal to those possessed by their immediate neighbors, leaving them to work out their own fortune in a manner to suit themselves. But it seems that his parental guardianship is to extend vastly farther than such a limit. He has projected an educational scheme, which, if successfully carried out, will make him known throughout the world, as one of the greatest and most practical benefactors in existence.—The following is a brief abstract of what he proposes to do:

It is his intention to establish at Oleana, a Polytechnic school, for the purpose of extending a knowledge of the arts and sciences. It is to be a civil and military school, and will be under the supervision of the most scientific men of Europe. An armory and foundry will be erected for practical purposes, and he intends that an efficient corps shall be instructed and employed in the manufacture of arms. This corps will be thoroughly instructed in everything pertaining to the manufacture and use of arms, building fortifications &c. &c. "The corps, when graduated, to be received into the regular army as a new corps." The Government is to have the benefit of all new discoveries and improvements that may be made in the arts and sciences, and he asks in return that he shall have the preference in the contracts for arms and ammunition. The students are to pay a moderate sum for their tuition, to support the institution. The teachers, artisans and workmen are to have the privilege of taking shares in a joint stock company to be formed for building the works, and are to share in the profits of whatever contracts may be made with the Government.

This project is a good one, and its author is capable of putting it into operation. He is a man of liberal education, and is possessed of the most indomitable energy and perseverance. Whatever he undertakes, he accomplishes. His school will give every young man who desires a military education, an opportunity to acquire it.—Olean Jour.

Milwaukee Harbor.

Capt. J. W. Gunnison of the U. S. Army, arrived in this city a day or two since, to superintend the construction of the Harbor at this place. We have no doubt but that the expenditure of the $15,000 appropriation will be made in accordance with the wishes of the city, and the substantial aid which it may furnish towards carrying out the work. It is well known that the sum appropriated is entirely insufficient for the construction of what is known as the "Straight Cut," and in order to have that channel opened it will be necessary for Milwaukee, under the law recently passed by our Legislature, to grant liberal aid thereto. Under the efficient and judicious management of Capt. Gunnison, our city is now in a fair way of having its harbor facilities speedily completed in the most substantial manner. If the means are furnished we understand it will be constructed within one year.—Morning News.

...the Central track, one first class passenger car was thrown upon its side, and groans and cries assailed the ears of those who hastened from the rest of the first class cars which retained their position. Those in this car were aided to escape from the confusion, and from the danger of suffocation, and it was found that none were dangerously injured, though several received severe bruises.

The scene which presented itself upon the other side of the Central track cannot be fully described, and time will not efface the memory of that terrible and heart-rending spectacle, from the mind of the unwilling beholder.

We saw a heap of ruins, from beneath which shrieked out upon the midnight air, cries for help, mingled in strange discord with the deeper toned groans of the dying. One by one those who were able, crawled out from the rubbish, while the uninjured were fully employed in rendering assistance to those unable to extricate themselves.

Each moment the scene became, if possible, more heart rending. Here sat a poor woman with a broken limb and her little daughter stood by her side, weeping and begging for assistance. There lay a young German, dead, his sister by his side, wringing her hands, and crying "mein Bruder, mein Bruder!" Here a child crying "O my father," there a woman wailing for the loss of her infant. A woman dead, her mangled features but partially concealed by a cloak, and at her side only a faithful dog.

Three children, from three to ten years of age, were taken from the water, and placed side by side. At the head of one sat the bereaved father. No one came to claim the other two

An infant was picked out of the ruins unharmed but no mother could be found for it.

Those most dangerously injured were conveyed into the unharmed cars, and rendered as comfortable as possible. With some the struggle between life and death seemed uncertain.

In this place was exhibited the kindness of woman's nature, and the sympathy of many a true heart found expression in timely action.

It was the general opinion that from 12 to 15 bodies lay beneath the ruins, though it was impossible to ascertain with any accuracy. Four bodies had been taken out. From 50 to 60 were seriously injured, and some of these cannot recover. The emigrants on the Central road suffered the most.

The cause of this collision, rarely if ever equalled in its fatal and terrible results, is beyond conjecture. The night was as bright as a nearly full moon and the clearest atmosphere could make it. The two roads cross each other at nearly right angles, and run for a long distance on a straight line. It seems as if it was impossible for both engineers not to have have seen each other's trains for the distance of at least a half a mile if not a mile before reaching the crossing. But comment as yet on the cause is out of the question. Let an outraged community, let the survivors of the killed, let the maimed for life hold all those in any way connected with this wholesale destruction of human life to the strictest accountability.

The news of the collision, which occurred about ten o'clock, was brought to the city by the locomotive of the emigrant train. Messengers were dispatched to the city from the depot, and Dr. Palmer and Clark, and one of the editors of the Tribune, were soon under way. At the Central Railroad depot a locomotive and passenger car were in waiting for them, and by twelve o'clock they had reached the fatal scene.

The physicians, with admirable self possession, proceeded immediately to do all in their power for the groaning sufferers. In the course of two hours they had administered more or less of relief to all. At half past two the first class passengers from Chicago were transferred to the Central passenger car and brought up to the city. Up to that time no locomotive had come from the city to bear away the wounded and dying who had been crushed in the cars of that road, and yet four hours and a half had elapsed since the collision! and yet those poor creatures in all the agonies of broken limbs and smashed bodies could not be conveyed to any house or bed except on that road.

It must be borne in mind that each of the tracks which concentrate at this crossing are flanked with water on both sides so that the getting from one place to another, is at all points difficult and at some impossible.

The ruin of the cars was in itself a terrible sight. Piled up in the water lay an immense heap of wheels, iron railings, splinters, doors &c. &c. On one side lay the crushed locomotive still emitting steam as late as 2 o'clock. Perched on the top of all, at the height of twelve feet above the waters edge was the baggage car of the Express train with one-half perfectly sound, not even the end glass broken. The other end had burst open and a portion of the trunks had rolled down the heap into the water below.

Beneath one edge of the car appeared the bald head and one hand of an old man. The leg of one and the body of another were also visible beneath the car.

To the east of the ruins burned a bright fire kindled from the splinters, whose light flickered across the quiet forms of the three children, and shone brightly upon the passengers who gathered around it. Another fire was also burning west of the Express train.

No one in the first class passenger cars, was seriously injured. The engineer, fireman and conductor escaped as usual.

☞ We shall publish Extras as fast as additional news arrive.

☞ We are pleased, in looking over the books of the Gymnasium a day or two since, to see the names of so many of our prominent citizens enrolled thereon as subscribers. That Mr. Merritt is receiving the right kind of encouragement from the right kind of persons, is evident from the character of the members; and it is amusing to see the enthusiasm with which they climb, hand over hand on the slack ropes and ladders, or skin up as it were the rigging of a vessel, or practice the thousand and one feats, calculated to strengthen and develope their physical energies. The ladies too, are taking hold of the matter, and some of them under the judicious care and instruction of Mrs. Merritt are already regaining the bloom and rosy appearance which they had lost by a want of proper exercise. To one and all, we recommend the Gymnasium as an innocent, pleasing, yet beneficial place of resort, where health may be preserved, and all needful exercise obtained at a trifling expense.—*Det. IMPROVEMENT OF PRAIRIE LANDS.—It is a well known fact that the government lands in some of our western States, include immense tracts of beautiful level prairie, rich in soil, and easy of tillage, and calculated in every respect to reward the labors of the husbandman with an abundant harvest. Unfortunately, a large portion of this land is entirely destitute of timber—that all important requisite to the comfort and welfare of the farmer—and is therefore allowed to lie at waste, neglected and uncared for. It is strange that the idea has never occurred to government of planting acorns or the seeds of other timber trees upon certain tracts, distributed at proper intervals over these prairies, thus preparing the way for valuable and abundant forests at a future day, and increasing the desirability and cash value of the land. We believe that if an enterprising Yankee, young enough to "bide his time," should buy up a few thousand acres of these prairie lands, and plant different portions of his property in the manner above stated, the result would prove to be a safe and excellent speculation.—Boston Journal.

LOCAL MATTERS.

[Concert this] EVENING.—Superior as the [previ]ous Concerts have been, still the presence of Madame Strakosch will add much to the [interest] of the one this evening. We regret that we cannot hear her in some of the Duetts of the great composers, but in the Solos of the programme she cannot fail to be the same sweet and finished artiste. The "Drinking song," from Lucretia, is a favorite, but we wish "Casta Diva" was on the bill. Can we not hear it? The "Non Giunge," from the lovely Adelina, will be heartily welcomed, and so will all that she sings. The parts that devolve on Strakosch to perform will be charmingly done, of course.—Under his almost magic hands the Piano must discourse the richest music. Ole Bull gives the "Carnival of Venice" and the "Witch Dance" again, and adds a "Fantasia" and "Andante," from which we anticipate much, very much.—Can we do otherwise, when they come from the forming and executing power of genius so true and rare. We may anticipate without fear of disappointment.

PERSONAL.—We observe, among the arrivals at one of our hotels, last evening, the name of Hon. JOHN C. WALKER, the talented and gentlemanly editor of the La Porte Commercial Times. During the recent session of the Indiana Legislature, Mr. W., as chairman of the committee on education, secured the modification of the school laws of Indiana, so as to effect a more complete organization of the free educational system throughout the State. At this particular time, when our free school system is attacked, and organized efforts threaten its destruction, it may not be out of place to copy the last paragraph of Mr. W's report, which is as applicable to Illinois as to Indiana. We copy from the Indianapolis State Sentinel:

Our State rejoices in the hardy vigor of early youth. She stretches her arms from the great Lakes to the Ohio river, and grasps within their fold a myriad of hidden riches. In the development of her resources, let us not forget that she should have a moral as well as a physical strength; that she has other soils to cultivate and other jewels to embellish, and that they are the immortal minds of her children.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD.—A train of construction cars with passenger cars attached, runs daily from Chicago to Coon Grove, a distance of nearly forty miles, over this road. It leaves about seven A. M.

The Storm.

Sunday during one of the most violent storms we have witnessed for a long time, the Sultana made the port. When we saw her in sight we thought it impossible, to prevent her being driven ashore, but owing to the strength of her machinery and the skill of her officers she was safely moored in the harbor.

Just at night we saw a sail vessel drifting slowly towards the south western shore of the lake, apparently at the mercy of the waves.—The storm was exceedingly violent, and we shall wait with anxiety reports from the different ports upon the lake.

LAYING OF A CORNER STONE.—On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the African M. E. Church and School House, will take place at the corner of Jackson and Buffalo streets. The address will be given by Rev. James E. Wilson, which will be followed, by the appropriate exercises. All interested in the prosperity of this church, are invited to be present, especially those who have kindly assisted in this important and praiseworthy enterprise. The additional presence of only one person will add interest to the occasion.

Arrival of valuable Stock.

Doct. J. C. Bennett of Fort Desmoines, Iowa, came up on the steamer Sultana, which arrived here from Buffalo, Sunday morning. He has brought with him the following valuable stock:

1 French Merino Buck, 15 months old, weighing 150 lbs.
1 French and Spanish ewe, 9 months old.
4 Suffolk pigs.
2 Black Spanish fowls.
2 Brahma Poota fowls.
4 Imperial Chinese fowls.
2 Hong Kong fowls.
4 Malacca game cocks.
3 Sumatra game cocks.
2 Brahmin Geese, the pair weighing 60 lbs.
2 St. Bernard pups.
1 Spanish Cat.

The sheep were brought from the farm of John Campbell, Esq., of Middlebury, Vt., who is well known for his enterprise in the introduction of choice sheep into the country. Dr. Bennett paid $600 for the buck. He also purchased of Mr. Campbell, for Mr. De Gray of New Orleans, a ram and four ewes, paying for them $2,000. The introduction of good stock of all kinds is one great desideratum. It costs no more to raise good than poor animals. The investment may seem to some extravagant, but none will prove more advantageous. The farmers are fast becoming convinced of this, and no doubt such examples of enterprise as shown by Dr. Bennett, will become more and more frequent.

P. S.—We regret to learn that the valuable ewe of Dr. Bennett's was found dead yesterday morning, it having got strangled by the chain with which it was fastened. The loss is more than that of some hundreds of dollars, for the trouble and difficulty in procuring animals so rare, are great.

BOOT AND SHOE STORE.—Buel & Wells have opened a large wholesale and manufacturing boot and shoe store at 145 South Water street. Their arrangements for keeping on hand a full and first rate quality stock are very complete. See advertisement.

ROBBERY, BURGLARY AND LIQUOR.—On Sunday night a young man on board the steamer Sultana was attacked by three half drunken rowdies, pulled, knocked and choked, which resulted in some bruises and the loss of his purse. They escaped, but one of them was afterwards arrested for breaking open a small grocery on Water st., and conveyed to a safe place. It was said that he had just broken away from the jail at Buffalo and escaped on the Sultana. However this was, he showed a strong disposition to examine the basement of our Court House.

HONOR TO WHOM, &c.—We see in the programme of Ole Bull's Concert for to-night, "Home, Sweet Home" ascribed to Sir H. Bishop as the composer. We believe the honor belongs to the late John Howard Payne, Esq., an American.

THE STRIKE.—The late strike on the Illinois Central, near Freeport, still continues. The Galena Jeffersonian says that a party of contractors, accompanied by a constable, have gone to bring in the most refractory.

FIRST VESSEL FROM LAKE ONTARIO.—The clipper schooner Flying Cloud, Capt. Pierce, came in Saturday, from Oswego, with salt.

A LARGE LOAD.—The canal boat Champion arrived here last Saturday with 4,900 bushels of shell corn and 141 barrels of highwines, equal in all to 170 tons.

☞ The steamer Sultana will leave to-day for Buffalo. Capt. Gil Appleby commands her. Every body knows Gil.

QUICK TRIP.—The barque Norman arrived at Milwaukee on Sunday evening, in only three days from Detroit, which is the quickest trip on record. She unloads 800 barrels of salt at Milwaukee, and discharges the rest of her cargo here, which is mostly water lime.

ARRIVED.—The following vessels came in on Saturday from the lower lakes:

Brig Sultan, from Detroit,—brought lumber from Saginaw.
Brig Mechanic, from Detroit,—brought lumber from Saginaw.
Brig Cortlandt, from Detroit,—brought lumber from Saginaw.
Brig Ellen Parker, from Sheboygan river, with lumber.
Brig F. C. Clark, from Buffalo, with coal.
Brig L. A. Blossom, from Buffalo, with railroad iron.
Brig Flora, from Erie, with coal.
Sch. Racine.

FIRST STEAMER FROM BUFFALO.—The steamer Sultana arrived Sunday morning, with merchandise and passengers.

ICE BOUND.—The brig Sultan, in coming thro' the Straits of Mackinaw on Wednesday night, got becalmed, and in the morning they found the ice had made nearly half an inch thick all across the Straits, but as the breeze sprung up she soon "cleared the track."

Deserved and appropriate.

We have frequently called the attention of the public to the Commercial College, established in this city by Hon. D. V. BELL, as an institution eminently adapted to the wants of the young men of the West, who desire an education that will qualify them for any business pursuit. At the recent session of the Legislature, the Institution was chartered, under the title of "Bell's Commercial College," and with corporate powers that will enable Judge Bell to extend its usefulness much more widely than was possible merely as an individual concern. But what we desire to call attention to, at this time, is not what the future usefulness of the College will be, but the satisfaction it has already given to those who have received benefits from it. At the close of the recent term, the students, in the exuberance of their gratitude for the information they had gained from the instructions of Judge Bell, sought to express their sentiments by a manifestation such as would cause an agreeable remembrance of their delights among themselves, and be a souvenir to him from whose instruction they had derived so much. To this end, a committee was appointed to select a beautifully bound copy of that most extraordinary and gigantic work entitled "Bartlett's Commercial and Banking Tables," a work equally adapted to the currencies of all Commercial nations, and the fruit of nine years of unremitting labor, with many assistants, and published at an expense of $20,000.—On the back of the Book is a large Silver Plate, with the following inscription:

"Presented to D. V. Bell, by the Students of the Chicago Commercial College, as a Token of Respect and Esteem."

Signed by the Committee of Presentation, John H. Butler, Jr., George McCagg, Fred E. Peebles.

The following correspondence took place, between the Students of the College, and Judge Bell, on the occasion:

HON. D. V. BELL:
Principal of Chicago Commercial College:

DEAR SIR:—Please accept the accompanying volume as a slight testimonial of our regard and friendship, and be assured that as years roll on and we enter upon the active duties of life, we shall always look back with the warmest emotions of pleasure to the past winter, and ever entertain the most friendly feelings toward the Principal of the excellent Institution we have attended.

Very res'y, yours,
THE GRADUATES AND STUDENTS OF THE CHICAGO COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.
Chicago, April 18, 1853.

COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, Chicago, April 19th, 1853.

To Messrs. GEO. McCAGG, FRED E. PEEBLES, JNO. H. BUTLER, JR., Committee, &c.

GENTLEMEN:—The very excellent and valuable gift, presented through you, by the Students and Graduates of this Institution, I accept with the most grateful emotions.

It is a source of much gratification to me to know that the education derivable through a course of study in this School, is really of the highest practical benefit to the Student, who, having pursued an intelligent course, acquires knowledge of great value, which can otherwise only be obtained through the toil of many years in business, and who is thus prepared in the outset to assume the responsibilities, and discharge the duties of an accomplished business man. With most solicitude have I, then, watched the progress, and with great pleasure witnessed the proficiency of yourselves and your associates during the course of your studies; and this pleasure is greatly enhanced by perceiving that you individually entertain a just appreciation of the value of the education involved.

The work which you have so kindly presented to me, is indeed a valuable one—a perfect monument of human ingenuity, industry and intellectual power; and while I may consult its pages with profit, I shall never fail to derive pleasure from the recollection that it is the voluntary and affectionate tribute of those whom I regard with paternal feelings.

Accept then, gentlemen, for yourselves and for those whom you represent, my grateful thanks for this expressive testimonial of your esteem; and be assured that I reciprocate most fully all the kindly feelings you entertain. And now, at parting, accept too, my best wishes for your individual happiness and prosperity, while I fervently hope that your lives may each be characterized by efforts to discharge your whole duty in every department of human responsibility.

I am, Gentlemen, very truly
And sincerely, your friend,
D. V. BELL.

SLIGHT MISTAKE.—The Brig Monteath, in the storm on Sunday, mistook the piers of the Rail road south of the city for the piers of the harbor, and ran into five fathom water before she discovered the error. She let go her anchors, laid to without any injury, and came in yesterday morning.

DEAD.—We regret to learn that Mr. Robert Fergus' fine little boy died yesterday from the injuries received in falling from the scaffolding of a house on State street. Mortification set in which it was found impossible to check. The little fellow was just eleven years of age, and was a general favorite with his playmates and the friends of the family.

ST. GEORGE'S FESTIVAL.—The annual meeting of the St. George's Society was held last evening at the City Hotel, and was large and spirited. A report of it will be given in our afternoon paper.

THE PUZZLE.—'A reader' sends a supposed solution of the mathematical puzzle. Not being a 'constant reader' he is not aware that solutions like his were received long since, and that the using the 8 derived from the addition of the 5 and 3, is considered a defect, as we understand the proposition. Moreover, he did not make any allowance for the digit 5 on the envelope. This introduces the process of subtraction at this end.

INSTRUCTION IN FRENCH.—By an advertisement we see that Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hamilton propose to give lessons in French to gentlemen and ladies, in public and private classes. Terms reasonable. Mr. Hamilton is the son of the late author of the so called Hamiltonian instruction, and he uses this mode. The main principle of this system is to precede the grammatical study of a language with learning to translate, which is done by oral repetition of the translation of the teacher. This system has many favorites, and in many cases is certainly very efficient. There is no railroad to the knowledge of a language, but there is a great advantage in a good system. However it is our opinion that one system is not necessarily the best for all, and under all circumstances. One may tend most to promote progress in common parlance—another to promote a thorough grammatical and scientific knowledge of the language, and another to advance in writing the language. The age and mental characteristics of the individual should also be considered in choosing a system, at least, in many cases. Mr. Hamilton comes with good references as well as good promises. We have no reason to doubt his ability to sustain both.

FOR MINNESOTA RIVER.—The West Newton leaves this morning for the Minnesota river, which is reported to be in a good stage for navigation. Travellers thither will do well to embrace the opportunity to go on so good a boat.—Galena Advertiser, 22d.

COTTON IN AFRICA.—Thirty varieties of cotton have been found growing spontaneously in Africa. A missionary says he has stood erect under the branches of a cotton tree in a Goulah village, so heavily laden with bolls that it was propped up with forked sticks to prevent it from breaking under its own weight. The cotton was equal to that of any country. The natives manufacture cotton goods extensively.—Scientific American.

☞ The propeller Edith and Allegheny are in port from Buffalo

☞ The method adopted for bridging the great Pee Dee River, on the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad, is worthy of remark, as showing another purpose to which iron may be extensively applied. The piers for the bridge are composed of large hollow cylinders of cast iron, nineteen feet in circumference, their bases are sunk many feet into the bed of the river by exhausting the air from within them, by the method known as the Pneumatic Process, for forming foundations. The cylinders are filled with concrete and thus form hills of great strength and permanency.

THE RELIGIOUS ANNIVERSARIES.—The Commercial Advertiser states that notice has been given of the following anniversaries to be held in the Metropolitan Hall, New York:

Seaman's Friend Society, Monday, May 9th.
Am. & For. Christ. Union, Tuesday, May 10th.
N. Y. Colonization Society, " "
Am. Home Miss. Society, Wednesday, May 11th.
American Tract Society, " "
American Bible Society, Thursday, May 12th.
American Board, Friday, May 13th.

The officers of the various societies are busily engaged in preparing their reports, and making the other requisite arrangements. The aggregate receipts for the missionary cause, for Bible and tract distribution, and other purposes, are said to have been much larger than during the previous year.
